

GRABB'S ENCYCLOPEDIA OF FLAPS

The background of the cover is a detailed anatomical illustration. It shows a human torso from the waist up, with the skin partially transparent to reveal underlying muscles and blood vessels. A right arm is extended from the torso, with a yellow rectangular flap outlined on the forearm. Another yellow rectangular flap is outlined on the upper thigh. In the upper right corner, there is a small inset illustration showing a cross-section of a flap with its vascular supply. The overall color palette is dominated by the natural colors of human anatomy: pinks, reds, and yellows for the tissues, set against a light blue background for the sky or backdrop.
