Developmentally Appropriate Curriculum in Action Marjorie J. Kostelnik, Anne Soderman, Michelle Rupiper, Alice Whiren, 2013-04-29 Written for courses in Curriculum in Early Childhood Education and Methods for Teaching Young Children in Preschool and Kindergarten A comprehensive overview of all the components necessary to run an effective early childhood program as a teacher this concise new text is keenly focused on application and skill building utilizing several areas of child development aesthetic affective cognitive language physical and social as the basis for curriculum planning Neither a subject based nor a materials based curriculum this directly applicable text instead promotes several areas of child development and incorporates subject matter areas art math literacy and science into the developmental domains rather than focusing on the subjects themselves The authors present six activity types exploratory play guided discovery problem solving discussions demonstrations and direct instruction in every domain Furthermore they provide long form lesson plans and short form plans that illustrate these activity types in all of the curriculum chapters Closely aligned to the current developmentally appropriate practice DAP guidelines the text effectively prepares pre service teachers for the Praxis II exam if it is required in their state Promoting the teacher as an active participant in education is another important characteristic of the text with a detailed discussion of the importance of being intentional in one's teaching and what this looks like in a true classroom environment. The authors support this ideology by explaining and showing how a teacher becomes more active, one ready to make continual judgments about what to plan, how to build on children's interests and knowledge, and how to interact with children to scaffold their learning. Strongly methods-based in its approach, the text also imparts the how-to of teaching with a plethora of examples as to what is appropriate to teach children ages three to six years of age. Developmentally Appropriate Curriculum Marjorie J. Helps students create the best programs for young children ages three through eight. The authors' goal in writing Developmentally Appropriate Curriculum: Best Practices in Early Childhood Education was to bring together the best information currently available for developing an integrated approach to curriculum and instruction in the early years. The Sixth Edition addresses all aspects of classroom life, including the roles of children and adults, the physical and social environments, and teaching and learning within multiple domains for children age three to eight. It provides a comprehensive, cohesive approach to curriculum development which results in greater continuity for children and practitioners in group settings in childcare, preschool, and the early elementary grades. Concentrating as much on the how of curriculum development as on the what and why, the authors provide practical, research-based guidelines for translating theory into best practice that accommodates age appropriateness, individual differences, and social and cultural diversity. Students learn how to conceptualize, plan, implement, and evaluate curriculum through detailed application opportunities in each chapter.
