No Bake Bake Sale Letter:

Racism, Public Schooling, and the Entrenchment of White Supremacy Sabina E. Vaught, 2011-04-22 The racial achievement gap in U S education is a pervasive and consistent problem an unavoidable fact of public schooling in this country. Because This Is Not for Us is a multi site critical race ethnography of policy and institutional relationships in an large urban West Coast school district focused on the practices that created and sustain the achievement gap in that district s schools. In this daring and provocative work author Sabina Elena Vaught examines how this gap and the policies and practices that sustain it is produced and reproduced by structures of racism and race attitudes operative in education. She interweaves numerous interviews with and observations of teachers principals students school board members community leaders and others to describe the complex arrangement of racial power in schooling and concludes that the institutional relationships that create and support policy practices ensure the continued undereducation of Black and Brown youth.
