No Citizen Left Behind Meira Levinson, 2012-04-23 While teaching at an all Black middle school in Atlanta Levinson realized that her students individual self improvement would not necessarily enable them to overcome their historical marginalization In order to overcome their civic empowerment gap students must learn how to reshape power relationships through public political and civic action

No Citizen Left Behind Meira Levinson, 2012-05-08 While teaching at an all Black middle school in Atlanta Meira Levinson realized that students individual self improvement would not necessarily enable them to overcome their profound marginalization within American society This is because of a civic empowerment gap that is as shameful and antidemocratic as the academic achievement gap targeted by No Child Left Behind No Citizen Left Behind argues that students must be taught how to upend and reshape power relationships directly through political and civic action Drawing on political theory empirical research and her own on the ground experience Levinson shows how de facto segregated urban schools can and must be at the center of this struggle Recovering the civic purposes of public schools will take more than tweaking the curriculum Levinson calls on schools to remake civic education Schools should teach collective action openly discuss the racialized dimensions of citizenship and provoke students by engaging their passions against contemporary injustices Students must also have frequent opportunities to take civic and political action including within the school itself To build a truly egalitarian society we must reject myths of civic sameness and empower all young people to raise their diverse voices Levinson s account challenges not just educators but all who care about justice diversity or democracy

The Cradle of Citizenship James Traub, 2026-01-13 A devastating critique of our failure to prepare students for citizenship and a roadmap to a better way America s Founders placed great confidence in schools which they believed would teach young people to understand our political system and to engage in reasoned political debate as adults Yet today when virtually all Americans graduate from high school we remain stunningly ignorant of history and government In 2022 the National Assessment of Educational Progress found that only 13 percent of students scored a proficient level in history Adults do no better only 40 percent can name the three branches of government In The Cradle of Citizenship James Traub chronicles his year of observing public schools across the country talking to teachers scholars and curriculum designers He finds teachers in Florida who are afraid of discussing topics that might be seen as woke a red blue war incarnated in the 1619 Project and 1776 Report a profound disagreement over what exactly civic education means and most dismayingly ever diminishing expectations of students with ever dwindling attention spans Yet The Cradle of Citizenship also finds sources of hope Traub learns that despite endless right wing critiques virtually all social studies teachers keep their personal views to themselves and encourage students to develop views of their own He describes the extraordinary collaboration between liberal and conservative scholars that led to the creation of Educating for American Democracy a roadmap for the teaching of civics Finally Traub describes the classical school a traditional model based on the study of great books and the conscious molding of character which is derided as reactionary in progressive circles yet prompts students to discuss books and ideas with depth Shedding light on one of the most divisive issues of our time The Cradle of Citizenship upholds a vision of civics education as it could be The Evangelical Repository, and Bible Teacher ,1886 Works and Life: Imag.
