Getting to Know the New Testament Stephen H. Travis, 2003 Many people today are discovering in the Bible the message which brings them closer to Christ, the giver of life in all its fullness. But do they really understand what they are reading? In writing this book, Stephen Travis has tried to imagine people getting involved in Bible reading groups, perhaps for the first time, and sets out what he would want to share with them if they were generous enough to give him nine or ten weekly sessions to explain how the New Testament may be approached. There are difficulties in understanding most books, especially an ancient book such as the New Testament, but rather than concentrate on the difficulties to be overcome before starting, the author offers straightforward encouragement to those who want to learn directly by reading the New Testament itself. He tackles such questions as understanding the Gospels and Epistles and the relevance of the New Testament to Christian belief, spirituality, and behaviour. At the end of the book are suggestions about basic helps to Bible study.

STEPHEN H. TRAVIS is Vice Principal of St John's College in Nottingham, England. His other books include Christ Will Come Again and The Bible in Time.

Reconciliation: Finding Peace with God and Others Sherry L. Cahill, 2024-04-25 Reconciliation: Finding Peace with God and Others confronts questions like: Is it feasible to reconcile broken relationships? Sherry draws from her rich life experiences of ministry in the USA, Africa, and Asia to show us how we can move from resentment, bitterness, and guilt to forgiveness, love, and freedom. I highly recommend this excellent guide for liberating small group or discipleship conversations.

Dr. Jerry D. Porter, General Superintendent Emeritus of the Church of the Nazarene, a wonderful follow-up to Forgiveness: Getting Beyond the Pain. Finding Peace with God Yourself and Others. Cahill utilizes personal experience, education, and research to bring a well-informed and easy-to-understand way to seek healthy reconciliation with others, ourselves, and with God.
