Revisiting Aspect and Aktionsart Francis G. H. Pang,2016-02-02 In Revisiting Aspect and Aktionsart Francis G H Pang employs a corpus approach to analyze the relationship between Greek aspect and Aktionsart Recent works have tried to predict the meanings that emerge when a certain set of clausal factors and lexical features combine with one of the grammatical aspects. Most of these works rely heavily on Zeno Vendler's telicity distinction. Based on empirical evidence, Pang argues that telicity and perfectivity are not related in a systematic manner in Koine Greek. As a corollary, Aktionsart should be considered an interpretive category meaning that its different values emerge not from the interaction of only one or two linguistic parameters but from the process of interpreting language in context. Working with Uncertainty for Educational Change Carmel Conn, Bethan Mitchell, Matt Hutt, 2024-09-24. Working with Uncertainty for Educational Change explores the liberating possibilities for those who seek to embrace existing research into uncertainty and complexity at diverse levels in the world of education. The lives of education professionals are built upon a multitude of decision making events that frame each working day. With a range of expert contributors this insightful book brings together varied perspectives on the nature of complexity within educational contexts focusing particularly on the emotional work involved in change. Organised into two major parts, its first part focuses on the intellectual challenge of thinking about uncertainty by exploring the dominant discourses of certainty in the field of education. The second part, on the other hand, considers how we can embrace uncertainty within practice by exploring conditions that support reflection, agency and acceptance of ambiguity.
