Michael Ondaatje's The English Patient (Book Review)

Reading this book, the reader is transported to a world where nothing is as straightforward as it seems. The story is set in a remote, isolated location, where the characters are trapped in a cycle of obsession and self-destruction. The novel is a masterpiece of storytelling, with a complex plot and a rich, detailed world. The characters are flawed and complex, and their actions are driven by a mix of passion, fear, and desperation. The book is a powerful exploration of the human condition, and it is a must-read for anyone who loves a good story.
