Being a newsboy was a common job for children back in the late 1800s. Poor, orphaned boys were usually the ones taking these jobs as newsboys because they needed to earn a living. They would use the money they made selling papers to buy papers to sell the next day and to buy themselves basic necessities.

Pulitzer and Hearst were two of New York City's most powerful men. Pulitzer owned "The New York Journal" and Hearst owned "The New York World." They were the two most powerful newspapers in the city. To be more powerful, the two raised the price of the newspaper from 50 cents per hundred papers.

The newsboys protested against the strike in July of 1899. During a strike, something is held back.
