The right nonfiction titles ones with colorful photographs and facts that are interesting to young imaginations give librarians an opportunity to connect with children who are yearning for true stuff. Presenting poetry in storytime encourages a love of language and the chance to play with words. Written by authors with a combined 25 years of experience working with children and books in a library setting. Get Real With Storytime 52 Weeks of Early Literacy Programming goes far beyond the typical storytime resource book by providing books and great ideas for using nonfiction and poetry with preschool children. This book provides a complete year long programming guide for librarians who work with preschool children in public libraries and school librarians who run special programs for preschoolers as well as parents, childcare providers and camp counselors. Each of the 52 broad storytime topics one for each week of the year includes a sample storytime featuring an opening poem, a nonfiction title, picture books, songs, rhymes or fingerplays and a follow up activity. Early literacy tips that are based on the authors extensive experience and the principles of Every Child Ready to Read ECRR are presented throughout the book.

Life Flash Paul Trainer, 2006-06-29 Charles Dennis a hard working man happily married with three children two young sons and a younger daughter. He's planned a vacation one that he has been on before. He needs his family's help but can they? Can his wife Dorothy sort out the truth of his past or will she also fall into the depths of his mind? Will the entire family be able to face the unknown during their camping trip? And can his sons figure a way to keep them safe in the dark woods or will the danger behind every tree trap their journey forever in their minds? A long, shallow road awaits the Dennis family a road traveled by few. For some survival was never an option and this night of terror that beckons from the eternal whelm of the mind may be the last refuge for one.
