Negotiating Diplomacy In The New Europe Negotiating Diplomacy In The New Europe:

Negotiating Diplomacy in the New Europe Stefanos Katsikas, 2011-10-30 Bulgaria has faced previously unimaginable pressures over the last two decades as it struggles to adapt to a post Communist landscape and to reform both state and society in the wake of the fall of the Soviet Union while facing the challenge of increased efforts by NATO and the EU to expand into this region In Negotiating Diplomacy in the New Europe Stefanos Katsikas sheds new light on the mechanisms and factors which have influenced the making and shaping of Bulgarian foreign policy examining the extent to which both domestic factors and the international environment have affected its trajectory Following the promulgation of Gorbachev's now famous policies of glasnost and perestroika and the fall from power of the Bulgarian Communist Party led at the time by Todor Zhivkov many have directly attributed Bulgaria's changes in foreign policy to the processes of democratization witnessed throughout Eastern Europe However although this was to some extent the case the commonalities shared with the country's foreign policy during the Cold War era leave in question the extent to which the effects of democratization alone suffice to explain Sofia's post communist diplomatic and strategic policies By analysing the influencing factors of Bulgaria's foreign policy since 1989 Katsikas considers factors such as domestic policies as well as the effects of EU and NATO efforts to expand their influence and membership Rich in primary sources including personal interviews with key protagonists who have dominated foreign policy making in both communist and post communist Bulgaria Negotiating Diplomacy in the New Europe examines the shift of foreign relations not only within the context of post Cold War democratization but also the country's integration into wider Euro Atlantic frameworks It thus holds invaluable analysis for researchers of Europe's post communist international relations as well as those interested in the processes of democratization and those of foreign policy formation as a Construct of the New Europe Marko Lehti,1999 The emergence of the idea of Baltic Sea unity and of Baltic cooperation seem to be the issues which unify the two big epoch making periods the end of the First World War and the end of the Cold War In both periods the Baltic Sea connection has been seen to offer a coordinate for remapping the location of the eastern Baltic nations the Estonians and Latvians in particular Why has the Baltic Sea area played so important a role as a construct of the new Europe This is the question examined in this study which focuses on the period after the First World War when the disintegration of European multinational empires meant a shift in the international system from the hegemony of a few great powers to the heterogeneity of small states As a part of this process the concepts of sovereignty and national self determination were redefined by the small states themselves so that they would manage to find their place in the world of the great powers One expression of this transition period was a lively Baltic cooperation which attained an exceptional pitch of intensity in the Europe of its time On the Peace Negotiations of 1782-83, as Illustrated by the Secret Correspondence of France and England John Jay,1888 Public Administration Series--Bibliography ,1989 Political Science Abstracts ,1997 The New Economic Diplomacy Stephen Woolcock,Nicholas Bayne,2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2003 This text explains how states conduct their external economic relations as the 21st century begins how they make decisions domestically how they negotiate internationally and how these processes interact It documents the transformation of economic diplomacy in response to the end of the Cold War the advance of globalisation and the terrorist attacks of September 2001 and illustrates the growing influence of non state actors like private business and civil society The book integrates a full academic and theoretical analysis with the experience of senior practitioners in economic diplomacy and is based on the authors work in the LSE s graduate programme on The Politics of the World Economy Europe ,1981 Bibliographie Mensuelle United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland),1992 General Report on the Activities of the European Communities in ... Commission of the European Communities,1993 The Expansion of Europe Wilbur Cortez Abbott,1918 Soviet Diplomacy and Negotiating Behavior--1988-90 Joseph G.
