The League of Extraordinary Gentlemen: Nemo: river of ghosts Alan Moore, 2013

Breaking the Frames Marc Singer, 2019-01-09 Comics studies has reached a crossroads Graphic novels have never received more attention and legitimation from scholars but new canons and new critical discourses have created tensions within a field built on the populist rhetoric of cultural studies As a result comics studies has begun to cleave into distinct camps based primarily in cultural or literary studies that attempt to dictate the boundaries of the discipline or else resist disciplinarity itself The consequence is a growing disconnect in the ways that comics scholars talk to each other or more frequently do not talk to each other or even acknowledge each other s work

Breaking the Frames Populism and Prestige in Comics Studies surveys the current state of comics scholarship interrogating its dominant schools questioning their mutual estrangement and challenging their propensity to champion the comics they study Marc Singer advocates for greater disciplinary diversity and methodological rigor in comics studies making the case for a field that can embrace more critical and oppositional perspectives Working through extended readings of some of the most acclaimed comics creators including Marjane Satrapi Alan Moore Kyle Baker and Chris Ware Singer demonstrates how comics studies can break out of the celebratory frameworks and restrictive canons that currently define the field to produce

new scholarship that expands our understanding of comics and their critics
