Mickalene Thomas Photographs:

Muse Jennifer Blessing, 2015 This volume is the first to gather together Mickalene Thomas's various approaches to photography including portraits, collages, Polaroids and other processes. The book also includes a section entitled Self-Representation in an Expanded Field which features a curated selection of images by artists who she considers to be an artistic community of influence from Malick Sidibé to more contemporary artists such as Zanele Muholi and LaToya Ruby Frazier. Mickalene Thomas: All about Love Ed Schad, Renée Mussai, Rachael Thomas, 2024 Co-organized by the Hayward Gallery, London and The Broad, Los Angeles and in partnership with the Barnes Foundation, Philadelphia. Mickalene Thomas: All About Love will be the first major international tour of this pioneering artist's work. Marking its debut at The Broad with over 80 works made by the artist over the last 20 years, the exhibition highlights how Thomas has mastered and innovated within several disciplines from mixed media painting and collage to installation and photography. The exhibition shares its title and several of its themes with the pivotal text by feminist author bell hooks in which love is an active process rooted in healing, carving a path away from domination and towards collective liberation. Exhibition website Mickalene Thomas Julie Crooks, Andrea

Andersson, 2018 Mickalene Thomas's vivid paintings, collages and photographs explode off the wall. Their larger-than-life women stare back and down at the viewer, confronting them head-on. Over the course of her prolific career, Thomas has created a body of work that expands notions of beauty, gender, sexuality and race, offering a complex vision of what it means to be a Black woman. In Femmes Noires, Thomas moves breezily between pop culture and the long history of Western and African art, inserting images of Black women into iconic paintings. At times she poses them nude; at other times she draws on elements as diverse as 1970s black-is-beautiful images of women, Edouard Manet's Odalisque, figures the mise en scène studio portraiture of James Van Der Zee and Malick Sidibé and her own collection of personal portraits and staged scenes. Her ability to detect and contain contradictions and to wrestle with stereotypes translates into powerful, self-possessed depictions of Black women that confront and subvert stereotypes. Femmes Noires is a bold examination of Thomas's work and her artistic practise at an important moment in history. It blends writing from iconic Black writers and essayists Alice Walker, Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, Edwidge Danticat and Lorraine O'Grady with 120 reproductions from Thomas's oeuvre, collages, paintings, film stills and photographs. Original essays by Andrea Andersson, visual arts curator of the Contemporary Art Center of New Orleans; Julie Crooks, curator at the Art Gallery of Ontario; and writer, art critic Antwaun Sargent complete the book. Mickalene Thomas: Femmes Noires accompanies an international touring exhibition organized by the Art Gallery of Ontario and the Contemporary Art Centre in New Orleans. It will open at the AGO in late November 2018. Black is Beautiful, 2018 Contains 14 reproductions of photographs by Mickalene Thomas. Self-Representation in an Expanded Field Ace Lehner, 2021-05-31 Defined as a self-image made with a hand-held mobile device and shared via social media platforms, the selfie has facilitated self-imaging, becoming a ubiquitous part of globally networked contemporary life. Beyond this, selfies have facilitated a diversity of image making practices and enabled otherwise representationally marginalized constituencies to insert self representations into visual culture. In the Western European and North American art historical context self portraiture has been somewhat rigidly albeit obliquely defined and selfies have facilitated a shift regarding who literally holds the power to self image. Like self portraits not all selfies are inherently aesthetically or conceptually rigorous or avant guard. But as this project aims to do address via a variety of interdisciplinary approaches selfies have irreversibly impacted visual culture contemporary art and portraiture in particular. Selfies propose new modes of self imaging forward emerging aesthetics and challenge established methods they prove that as scholars and image makers it is necessary to adapt and innovate in order to contend with the most current form of self representation to date. The essays gathered herein will reveal that in our current moment it is necessary and advantageous to consider the merits and interventions of selfies and self portraiture in an expanded field of self representations. We invite authors to take interdisciplinary global perspectives to investigate various sub genres aesthetic practices and lineages in which selfies intervene to enrich the discourse on self representation in the expanded field today.

Black Matrilineage, Photography, and Representation

Lesly Deschler Canossi, Zoraïda Lopez-Diago, 2022-10-03. Black Matrilineage Photography and Representation Another Way of Knowing questions how the Black female body specifically the Black maternal body navigates interlocking structures that place a false narrative on her body and that of her maternal ancestors. This volume which includes a curated selection of images addresses the complicated relationship between Blackness and photography and in particular its gendered dimension its relationship to health sexuality and digital culture primarily in the context of racialized heteronormativity. With over forty contributors this volume draws on scholarly inquiry ranging from academic essays interviews poetry to documentary practice and on contemporary art. Black Matrilineage Photography and Representation Another Way of Knowing thus offers a cross section of analysis on the topic of Black motherhood mothering and the participation of photography in the process. This collection challenges racist images and discourses both historically and in its persistence in contemporary society while reclaiming the innate brilliance of Black women through personal narratives political acts connections to place moments of pleasure and communal celebration. It serves as a reflection of the past a portal to the future and contributes to recent scholarship on the complexities of Black life and Black joy.

Mickalene Thomas / Portrait of an Unlikely Space

Keely Orgeman, 2023. A close look at a new installation by renowned contemporary artist Mickalene Thomas that marks the first time she has engaged with early American history. Mickalene Thomas b. 1971 has gained an international reputation for her dazzling portraits of Black women as well as her large scale installations that physically enfold viewers into lushly decorated 1970s inspired domestic interiors. This volume offers a window into Thomas's unique multifaceted approach and introduces a new living room style installation by the artist in which she creates for the first time a homelike environment reminiscent of the pre abolition era. In addition to period specific textile patterns and other decorative elements her installation incorporates a selection of small scale early American portraits of Black women men and children from miniatures and daguerreotypes to silhouettes on paper and engravings in books as well as a group of works by Thomas and other contemporary artists in a wide range of media The book s essays examine both how Thomas s engagement with early American history opens up previously unexplored and fertile ground for her artistic practice and how this project constructs evocative spaces both physically and textually in which the lives of early nineteenth century Black Americans can be recognized on their own terms With an artist s statement and extensive photography that captures details of the installation this presentation documents an exciting direction for one of today s most acclaimed artists Distributed for the Yale University Art Gallery Exhibition Schedule Yale University Art Gallery September 8 2023 January 7 2024    Photograph ,2009-07    Reading Fashion in Art Ingrid E.
