Boat Out of Shanghai Helen Zia, 2019-01-22 The dramatic real life stories of four young people caught up in the mass exodus of Shanghai in the wake of China's 1949 Communist revolution a heartrending precursor to the struggles faced by emigrants today. A true page turner Helen Zia has proven once again that history is something that happens to real people. New York Times bestselling author Lisa See NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY NPR AND THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR FINALIST FOR THE PEN JACQUELINE BOGRAD WELD AWARD FOR BIOGRAPHY. Shanghai has historically been China's jewel its richest most modern and westernized city. The bustling metropolis was home to sophisticated intellectuals entrepreneurs and a thriving middle class when Mao's proletarian revolution emerged victorious from the long civil war. Terrified of the horrors the Communists would wreak upon their lives citizens of Shanghai who could afford to fled in every direction. Seventy years later members of the last generation to fully recall this massive exodus have revealed their stories to Chinese American journalist Helen Zia who interviewed hundreds of exiles about their journey through one of the most tumultuous events of the twentieth century. From these moving accounts Zia weaves together the stories of four young Shanghai residents who wrestled with the decision to abandon everything for an uncertain life as refugees in Hong Kong Taiwan and the United States. Benny who as a teenager became the unwilling heir to his father's dark wartime legacy must decide either to escape to Hong Kong or navigate the intricacies of a newly Communist China. The resolute Annuo forced to flee her home with her father a defeated Nationalist official becomes an unwelcome exile in Taiwan. The financially strapped Ho fights deportation from the U.S. in order to continue his studies while his family struggles at home. And Bing given away by her poor parents faces the prospect of a new life among strangers in America. The lives of these men and women are marvelously portrayed revealing the dignity and triumph of personal survival. Herself the daughter of immigrants from China Zia is uniquely equipped to explain how crises like the Shanghai transition affect children and their families students and their futures and ultimately the way we see ourselves and those around us. Last Boat Out of Shanghai brings a poignant personal angle to the experiences of refugees then and by extension today Zia's portraits are compassionate and heartbreaking and they are ultimately the universal story of many families who leave their homeland as refugees and find less than welcoming circumstances on the other side Amy Tan author of The Joy Luck Club Access,1990 Cinemaya ,1995 Tears of Blood Mary Craig,1999 From the author of Kundun comes a powerful work that reveals the true horrors behind China's liberation of Tibet 16 page insert Blood Letters Lian Xi,2018-03-20 The staggering story of the most important Chinese political dissident of the Mao era a devout Christian who was imprisoned tortured and executed by the regime Blood Letters tells the astonishing tale of Lin Zhao a poet and journalist arrested by the authorities in 1960 and executed eight years later at the height of the Cultural Revolution The only Chinese citizen known to have openly and steadfastly opposed communism under Mao she rooted her dissent in her Christian faith and expressed it in long prophetic writings done in her own blood and at times on her clothes and on cloth torn from her bedsheets Miraculously Lin Zhao's prison writings survived though they have only recently come to light Drawing on these works and others from the years before her arrest as well as interviews with her friends her classmates and other former political prisoners Lian Xi paints an indelible portrait of courage and faith in the face of unrelenting evil Shared Values for a Troubled World Rushworth M.
