Department of Bibliography, 1980 Whole World of Music David Nicholls, 2013-12-19 It is impossible to contain Henry Cowell within the boundaries of the consistencies of forms, styles, ensembles, and genres of Western art music. John Cage once described Cowell as the open sesame for new music in America. Of the thousand or so works catalogued by William Lichtenwanger, the majority are formally innovative single-movement vocal or instrumental pieces, although there are 20 symphonies, five string quartets, and 8 suites of various kinds. Cowell was also innovative in his use of instruments from different cultures: jalatarang, dragonmouths, Japanese wind glasses, the shakuhachi flute, and in this book Lou Harrison writes of Cowell's adventurous promotion of automobile junkyards for the finding of new sounds. In addition, Cowell was a tireless advocate of new music in the West and Musics from other cultures worldwide as a teacher, lecturer, publisher, and performer. He founded New Music Quarterly in 1927 and wrote the influential book Ne. In this major book of articles, Theory and Practice of Therapeutic Massage Mark Beck, 2006. This text is known for being comprehensive and readable. Often used as the main text for programs that are about 500 hours, it covers all the key topics for individuals entering the profession with appropriate balance and depth. Individuals entering massage programs come from widely varied backgrounds; they are all ages, have held various positions, some health related, some not. Beck is known for being the text that can bring all these student dynamics together under the umbrella of a very readable, approachable text. Students like the fact that the often daunting area of A/P and other clinically challenging learning objectives are made approachable through a unique body system approach to the content and a nice writing style.
