National Bibliographic Service,1990      Building A New India G Venkata Prasad,2023-08-19 India has a promising opportunity to emerge as a dominant Economic Power To accomplish this objective two key prerequisites are essential the infusion of greater investments to develop world class infrastructure and the establishment of a strong construction industry capable of executing large scale projects within set timelines Building New

India is an all encompassing publication that delves into the potential of India's construction industry considering the significant impetus provided by the Indian government. Authored by G Venkata Prasad, a respected figure with over four decades of experience in the Indian construction industry, the book offers an analysis of the industry's current state and a roadmap for its future trajectory. It addresses critical concerns such as delays and cost overruns, skilled labour shortages, adoption of innovative technologies, climate change mitigation, and the development of efficient contracting capabilities. Additionally, the book places considerable emphasis on nurturing future leaders who can successfully spearhead major infrastructure projects. Drawing inspiration from global best practices across diverse domains, Building New India encourages India to set ambitious goals and overhaul its work practices. It underscores the importance of collaboration among all stakeholders to enhance the industry's efficiency and leverage its immense potential for the nation's advancement.

Malaysia, International Trade and Industry Report, 2007. Universal Secondary Education in India Jandhyala B. G. Tilak, 2020-07-24. This book offers a cutting-edge contribution on the importance of secondary education and assesses the strengths and weaknesses of its growth in India. Secondary education, long neglected, faces countless challenges and will require tremendous financial resources: millions of additional trained teachers and vast infrastructure in terms of buildings, laboratories, libraries, ICT facilities, etc. The book examines these critical issues with particular reference to the situation in India. It analyses the status quo of secondary education and discusses the strategies and approaches needed in order to universalize it. Including 20 chapters authored by eminent scholars in the field and from across the country, this book gathers the outcomes of a seminar organized by the Council for Social Development on Universalization of Secondary Education. The target audience includes policymakers, practitioners, administrators, education planners, researchers, teachers, and teacher educators with an interest in the future of secondary education. SSC General Awareness with Current Affairs & Previous 5 Year Questions for CGL, CHSL, MTS, Constable GD, JE (Civil),
