Joycean Unions R. Brandon Kershner, Tekla Mecsnóber, 2013 This exciting new volume presents recent research by internationally recognised Joyce scholars from Europe and North America. Entitled Joycean Unions Post Millennial Essays from East to West it pays particular attention to contemporary Eastern and Western European perspectives on the immensely influential work of the Irish writer James Joyce (1882-1941). The essays collected in this volume uncover various European sources of inspiration for Joyce's early aesthetic theories for the Sirens, Cyclops, Circe and Eumeus episodes of his modernist masterwork Ulysses (1922) and for his last tour de force Finnegans Wake (1939). They present inspiring new ways of reading Joyce's work, re-investigating the fascinating phenomenon of literary error and reviewing aspects of Joyce's varied afterlife in Ireland and Eastern Europe. The book will be of interest to scholars, students and the general audience interested in English literature, Modernism, European Studies, Irish Studies and, of course, the works of James Joyce.
