Notes from the Underground Fyodor Dostoyevsky, 2009 A bitter misanthropic man living alone in St Petersburg Russia in the 1860s retires from the Russian civil service after inheriting some money and writes a confused and often contradictory set of memoirs or confessions describing and explaining his alienation from modern society and its nineteenth century utilitarianism as well as his own remorse and self loathing

Notes from the Underground Fyodor Dostoevsky, 2009-09-01 Dostoevsky's disturbing and groundbreaking novella appears in this new annotated edition with an Introduction by Charles Guignon and Kevin Aho An analogue of Guignon's widely praised Introduction to his 1993 edition of The Grand Inquisitor the editors' Introduction places the underground man in the context of European modernity analyzes his inner dynamics in the light of the history of Russian cultural and intellectual life and suggests compelling reasons for our own strange affinity for this nameless man who boldly declares I was rude and took pleasure in being so

Deleuze and Guattari's What is Philosophy? Jeffrey A. Bell, 2016-08-18 In their final collaborative work Deleuze and Guattari set out to address the question what is philosophy Their answer is simple enough philosophy is the art of forming inventing and fabricating concepts In this book Jeffrey A Bell explores what that involves Crucial to Deleuze and Guattari's understanding of this task Bell argues is the assumption that philosophy is integral to a life well lived Bell shows that a concept of learning is created through the course of the text composed of three inseparable components philosophy science and art Ultimately What is Philosophy can be understood as a meditation on a life well lived with this concept of learning at its core

Kennedy, 2019-11-13 We want to live good lives but determining what a good life is isn't easy especially if we want the lives we lead to be ours rather than somebody else's Tom Kennedy helps us see why it is hard to find our way when it comes to living well and what we can do about that Finding our way requires knowing who we are understanding ourselves and Christians because of their experience with God will understand themselves differently than others in at least some ways Kennedy explores that understanding and discovers that Christian encounters with God lead to beliefs about God human nature forgiveness values and loving well that have important implications for what we do and feel for how we should live In clear and familiar language and with probing questions he helps us think more carefully and deeply about our identities and what it should look like for us to live well
