Mens World Vol 22 No 5:

Masculinities R. W. Connell, Raewyn Connell, 2005 This is an exciting new edition of R W Connell's ground breaking text which has become a classic work on the nature and construction of masculine identity Connell argues that there is not one masculinity but many different masculinities each associated with different positions of power In a world gender order that continues to privilege men over women but also raises difficult issues for men and boys Connell's account is more pertinent than ever before In a substantial new introduction and conclusion Connell discusses the development of masculinity studies in the ten years since the book's initial publication The book explores global gender relations new theories and practical uses of masculinity research Looking to the future a new concluding chapter addresses the politics of masculinities and the implications of masculinity research for understanding current world issues Against the backdrop of an increasingly divided world dominated by neo conservative politics Connell's account highlights a series of compelling questions about the future of human society This second edition of Connell's classic book will be essential reading for students taking courses on masculinities and gender studies and will be of interest to students and scholars across the humanities and social sciences

Migrant Men Mike Donaldson, Raymond Hibbins, Richard Howson, Bob Pease, 2009-09-11 This edited volume contributes an important collection of chapters to the growing theoretical and empirical work being undertaken at the international level on men and migration The chapters presented here focus on what we might call migratory masculinities the experiences men have of masculinity upon immigration into another national ethnic and cultural context How do these men reconstruct their conceptions of masculinity Where are the points of tension ambivalence or assimilation in this process Featuring interviews and data drawn from migrants working and living in Australia this book explores how the gender identity of men from non English speaking backgrounds is influenced by the experiences of migration and settlement in an English speaking culture across various cultural spheres such as work leisure family life and religion

Lost Continents & the Hollow Earth David Hatcher Childress, Richard S. Shaver, 1999 This book is Childress thorough examination of the early hollow earth stories of Richard Shaver and the fascination that fringe fantasy subjects such as lost continents UFOs and the hollow earth have had on people Shaver's rare 1948 book I Remember Lemuria is reprinted in its entirety and the book is packed with illustrations from Ray Palmer's Amazing Stories issues of the 1940s Childress discusses famous hollow earth books and delves deep into whatever reality may be behind the stories of tunnels underground

Small-Gauge Storytelling Ryan Shand, 2013-05-30 What do you understand by the term home movie Do you imagine images of babies on the lawn sandcastles on the beach or travels with the family Did you know that amateur filmmakers have also explored fictional genres as diverse and fascinating as their professional counterparts that specific amateur film studios have risen and fallen or that household name directors owe their origins and inspirations to the amateur film movement Across a range of settings from the Canadian north west to the Russian far east this book offers an introduction to the amateur maker of film comedies thrillers adaptations and sci fi It records the ambitions and achievements of enthusiasts struggling to emulate the mainstream and tell their own stories armed with limited resources and endless initiative

King Vidor in Focus Kevin L. Stoehr, Cullen Gallagher, 2024-08-12 King Vidor 1894-1982 had the longest career of any Hollywood director and his works include some of the most dramatic sublime moments in the history of American cinema Regarded by many film historians as one of the greatest of silent era filmmakers especially for masterworks The Big Parade The Crowd and Show People Vidor is nonetheless one of the most underrated of Hollywood's old masters in terms of his overall career

His sound era films include Hallelujah Street Scene The Champ The Stranger's Return Our Daily Bread Stella Dallas The Citadel Northwest Passage Duel in the Sun Beyond the Forest The Fountainhead Ruby Gentry and War and Peace He also helped to establish the Screen Directors Guild and served as its first president This book charts the ways in which Vidor's vast complex body of work ranges over diverse genres and styles while also expressing his recurring personal interests in spirituality especially Christian Science aesthetics metaphysics social realism and the myth of America The first book since 1988 to give a comprehensive view of Vidor's career it discusses his artistic evolution in a way that appeals to the general reader as well as to the film scholar

Men, 1896 Serials and Series Buck Rainey, 1999 The author of 13 other film studies details series and serials the distinction is blurry which are generally considered bit players in motion picture history but thrilled audiences for decades as memorable vehicles of vicarious adventure and romance In his brief but informative introduction the author provides such background details as continued next week series premiered in the silent era with What Happened to Mary 1912 and that Flash Gordon 1936 cost a quarter million dollars to produce To preserve their legacy he lists 753 domestic and foreign entries interspersed with vintage movie posters providing the what when who and where details to satisfy film buffs Extensive name but no subject index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
