Multimedia is the common name for media that combine more than one type of individual medium to create a single unit Interactive media are the means of communication in which the outputs depend on the inputs made by the user This book contains 11 chapters that are divided into two sections Interactive Multimedia and Education and Interactive Multimedia and Medicine The authors of the chapters deal with different topics within these disciplines such as the importance of cloud storage development of play tools for children use of gaming on multimedia devices designed for the elderly development of a reading writing and spelling program based on Luria s theories as well as development of mobile applications called BloodHero dedicated to the increase in blood donors etc      Teaching Low-achieving Children Reading, Spelling, and Handwriting Annabelle Most Markoff,1976 Two objectives of this book are to provide a rationale for using basic language forms sounds letters and words in the perceptual skill training of low achieving children and to present techniques for teaching reading spelling and handwriting to low achieving children The first chapter on the reading spelling inversion explains the perceptual relationships between reading and spelling and discusses the perceptual demands of the two processes Each of the other three chapters deals with developing the necessary perceptual skills and focuses on the following teaching areas reading decoding vocabulary comprehension fluency and motivation spelling word selection word meaning word structure word perception word production learning management remedial spelling in groups sound spelling the syllable sayer syllabication multiple choice spelling and diagnostic spelling tests and handwriting motor performance
