— Project management: What you need to know

1. When the economy is in expansion, firms experience low volatility, confidence is high, and there is little uncertainty about the future. This is a favorable environment for investment.
2. When the economy is in contraction, firms experience high volatility, confidence is low, and there is a lot of uncertainty about the future. This is an unfavorable environment for investment.
3. For investment decisions, firms have the best opportunity to offer new products when the economy is in expansion, and they experience success, which can lead to greater investment opportunities in the future.
4. Firms experience success in expansion, but they experience uncertainty and low confidence in contraction.
5. The effect of the economy on investment is not always linear. For example, in expansion, firms may experience success, but they may also experience uncertainty and low confidence.
