If You Don't Like This, I Will Die Lee Tilghman, 2025-08-12 A powerful and illuminating memoir that exposes the stark and rarely seen reality of influencing as a career Lee Tilghman also known as LeeFromAmerica was one of the very first wellness influencers To her nearly 400 000 followers she shared daily updates and advice on everything from skincare and sleep hacks to smoothie bowls travel tips and workout routines She embodied SelfCare Her sponsorships with such brands as Madewell and Subaru netted an income of over 300 000 a year On the grid her life seemed perfect But behind her carefully curated posts Tilghman was in crisis suffocating from the unrelenting demand of keeping up her online facade Her friendships frayed from an inability to enjoy any activity even a simple dinner without taking hundreds of photos She found herself viewing everything she did as potential content for Instagram The more she shared the more her followers craved Her romantic relationships suffered from the pressure to hard launch Her job's focus on food led her to develop a severe fixation on healthy eating At her lowest point she looked around her apartment to realize every item she owned had been given to her by brands in exchange for posting After a stay in a mental health facility to address her disordered eating and psychological decline Tilghman quit influencing as her primary career and set out to discover who she really was If You Don't Like This I Will Die is a sharp self-aware look at life inside the influencer economy and a relatable story for anyone who has struggled with the unreasonableness of online expectations With over half of Gen Z aspiring to be influencers nearly three out of five
