Emmy Award Winning Nighttime Television Shows, 1948-2004 Wesley Hyatt, 2015-09-11 Since the early days of television well before most households had a set the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences has been handing out honors for the industry's best efforts. Many of the entries include original interviews with cast or crew members. With such rich information each show's entry constitutes a chapter in the history of television through the story of the show and the people who made it happen. The best of variety drama game shows comedies adventures and many more categories are featured. An appendix offers interesting facts and figures and ranks shows according to such statistics as longest run longest delay from debut to win and most Emmys won.

From live productions of the 1950s like Requiem for a Heavyweight to big budget mini series like Band of Brothers long form television programs have been helmed by some of the most creative and accomplished names in directing. Encyclopedia of Television Film Directors brings attention to the directors of these productions citing every director of stand alone long form television programs made for TV movies movie length pilots mini series and feature length anthology programs as well as drama comedy and musical specials of more than 60 minutes. Each of the nearly 2 000 entries provides a brief career sketch of the director his or her notable works awards and a filmography. Many entries also provide brief discussions of key shows movies and other productions. Appendixes include Emmy Awards DGA Awards and other accolades as well as a list of anthology programs.
