Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature, Vol 1 R. Reginald, 2010-09-01 Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature A Checklist 1700 1974 Volume one of Two contains an Author Index Title Index Series Index Awards Index and the Ace and Belmont Doubles Index Mediation in Contemporary Native American Fiction James Ruppert, 1995 Mediation is the term James Ruppert uses to describe his important new theory of reading Native American fiction Focusing on novels of six major contemporary American writers N Scott Momaday James Welch Leslie Silko Gerald Vizenor D Arcy McNickle and Louise Erdrich Ruppert analyzes the ways in which these writers draw upon their bicultural heritage guiding Native and non Native readers alike to a different and expanded understanding of each other's worlds While Native American writers may criticize white society revealing its past and present injustices their emphasis Ruppert argues is on healing survival and continuance Their fiction aims to produce cross cultural understanding rather than divisiveness To that end they articulate the perspectives and values of competing world views In particular they create characters who manifest what Ruppert calls multiple identities determined by both Native and non Native perceptions of the self These writers use a variety of narrative techniques deriving from different cultural traditions They might incorporate Native oral storytelling techniques adapting them to written form or they might reconstruct Native mythologies investing them with new meaning and relevance by applying them to contemporary situations As novel writers they also include features more characteristic of western European writing such as the omniscient narrator or the detective story plot Novels James Fenimore Cooper, 1873

The Novels of Charles Lever Charles James Lever, Andrew Lang, 1895 The Novels of Charles Lever: The Dodd family abroad Charles Lever, 1898 Issues of Identity in Indian English Fiction H. S. Komalesha, 2008 Rapid developments in the fields of trade market commerce and telecommunication technologies together with cultural confrontations at the global level are creating a paradigmatic shift in people's understanding of selfhood and identity This book makes a serious attempt to trace and map out the making of contemporary post national identities within the subcontinental cultural production of India and in its English Fiction One of the structural ventures of this study is that these newer identities which are basically fragmented ruptured hyphenated and palimpsestic in nature require new descriptions and new elaborations within the field of creative literature and literary criticism In order to pursue its research on these lines the present work contrasts the notion of subjecthood and identity with the earlier phases of Indian cultural imagination as represented in some of the pioneering works of Indian English Fiction that have now attained a canonical status By analysing some of the predominant concerns that work as leitmotif in most of the Indian English novels the book brings together and reinterprets some problematic concepts such as history culture religion nation and nationalism and creates a theoretical axis upon which it charts insightful and engaging aspects of selfhood and identity The Novels of Charles Lever: The fortunes of Glencoe; illus. by E.J. Wheeler Charles James Lever, 1895 Beyond Boundaries, 2016-08-29 Despite the recent growth in university courses on European Studies and Cultural Studies and notwithstanding increasing public concern about questions of national identity within Europe there is currently little material available which explores the diversity of European identities specifically within the context of European literary and filmic culture In tackling ten novels six plays four films three short stories three books of travel writing and one diary covering fifteen nationalities in all the authors of this volume are seeking to fill this gap The twelve essays contain detailed textual analysis embedded within a framework of cultural theory whose most celebrated reference points include Freud Edward Said Benedict Anderson and Homi Bhabha This volume is aimed not only at specialists in identity studies and those concerned with the artistic landscape of a wider Europe including Russia the Balkans Finland and Turkey It will also interest those preoccupied with building an imaginative and imagined identity for Europe an identity which might help to sustain it as a political entity and lend it greater popular legitimacy than it enjoys at present
