Love Don't Need a Reason Matthew J. Jones, 2020 From a stage erected in front of the US Capitol on April 25 1993 Michael Callen surveyed the throng an estimated one million people stretched across the National Mall in the largest public demonstration of queer political solidarity in history What a sight he told the crowd his earnest Midwestern twang reverberating through loudspeakers You're a sight for sore eyes Being gay is the greatest gift I have ever been given and I don't care who knows about it He then launched into a gorgeous rendition of Love Don't Need a Reason the AIDS anthem he composed with Marsha Malamet and the late Peter Allen As Callen finished singing people stood cheering and flashing the familiar American Sign Language symbol for I Love You For they knew the song's sentiment rang true for Callen who had recently announced his retirement from music and activism after a living for more than a decade with what was then called full-blown AIDS After the March on Washington Callen returned to his recently adopted West Coast home Los Angeles In the ensuing months his health rapidly declined and on 27 December 1993 Callen died of AIDS-related pulmonary Kaposi's sarcoma Love Don't Need a Reason focuses on Callen's most important and lasting legacy his music A witness to the overlooked last years of Gay Liberation and a major figure in the early years of the AIDS crisis Michael Callen chronicled these experiences in song A community organizer activist author and architect of the AIDS self-empowerment movement he literally changed the way we have sex in an epidemic when he co-authored one of the first safe sex guides in 1983 A gifted singer songwriter and performer he also made gay music for gay people and used music to educate and empower people with AIDS Listening again to his music allows us to hear the shifting dynamics of American families changing notions of masculinity gay migration to urban areas the sexual politics of Gay Liberation and HIV/AIDS activism Using extensive archival materials and newly conducted oral history interviews with Callen's friends family and fellow musicians Matthew J. Jones reintroduces Callen to the history of LGBTQIA music and places Callen's music at the center of his important activist work

Archives and New Modes of Feminist Research Maryanne Dever, 2020-04-28 In an era when the metaphor of the archive is invoked to cover almost any kind of memory collection or accumulation it is important to re-examine what is entailed politically and methodologically in the practice of feminist archival research This question is central not only to the renewed interest many disciplines are showing in empirical research in archives but also given the current explosion of online social and cultural data which has fundamentally transformed what we understand an archive to be Contributors in this collection are keen to mark out what may be novel and what is enduring in the ways in which feminist thought and feminist practice frame archives Importantly they engage with archives in their historical and political complexity rather than treating them as simple repositories of source material In this respect contributors are keenly interested in what it means to archive particular materials and not simply in what those materials may hold for feminist researchers The collection features established and emerging feminist scholars and brings together interventions from across such disciplines as history literature modernist studies cinema studies and law This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Australian Feminist Studies Life Writing Outside the Lines Eva C.

Karpinski,Ricia Chansky,2020-06-04 Designed as a contribution to the field of transnational comparative American studies this book focuses on gender in life writing that exceeds the boundaries of traditional genres The contributors engage with authors who bend genres to speak gender as it manifests in multiple shapes in different geographic locations across the Americas and especially as it intersects with race and migration war and colonialism illness and ageing In addition to supplying new insights into the established sites of auto biographical production such as memoir archive and oral history the book explores experimental mixed forms such as selfies auto theory auto bio comics and autobiogeography By combining this multi genre and multi media perspective with a multi generational approach to life writing the book showcases a spectrum of established and emerging critical voices many of whom have been influenced by the work of Marlene Kadar the Canadian life writing scholar whose interventions have expanded the feminist and interdisciplinary methods of life writing studies Tracing the intergenerational relay of ideas this collection fosters dialogue across the western hemisphere and will be useful to those studying life writing exchanges between North America Latin America and the Caribbean This book was originally published as a special issue of a b Auto Biography Studies Sex in the archives Barry Reay,2018-12-10 The archive has assumed a new significance in the history of sex and this book visits a series of such archives including the Kinsey Institute s erotic art gay masturbatory journals in the New York Public Library the private archive of an amateur pornographer and one man s lifetime photographic dossier on Baltimore hustlers Shedding new light on American sexual history the topics covered are both fascinating and wide ranging the art history of homoeroticism casual sex before hooking up transgender New York queer sex masturbation pornography sex in the city This book will appeal to a wide readership those interested in American studies sexuality studies contemporary history the history of sex psychology anthropology sociology gender studies queer studies trans studies pornography studies visual studies museum studies and media studies Performing Folk Songs

Elizabeth Bennett,2023-12-14 Performing Folk Songs is the first full length volume to explore English folk singing from the perspective of performance studies Using archival sources family repertoire and recorded performances of interviewees this book argues that archives and repertoires are produced in sensory environments and through embodied encounters Autoethnography sensory ethnography life writing and landscape writing are used to explore the affective and emotional aspects of learning songs by heart Drawing on her experience as a folk singer Bennett contributes to discourse on English folk traditions in the 21st century and brings performance scholarship to the contemporary folk song resurgence In analyzing
