Out Of The Ordinary Chants:

Beneventanum Troporum Corpus II, Part 1a John Boe, 1989-03-01      Western Plainchant David Hiley, 1995

Plainchant is the oldest substantial body of music that has been preserved in any shape or form. It was first written down in Western Europe in the wake of the Carolingian renaissance of the 8th and 9th centuries. Many thousands of chants have been sung at different times or places in a multitude of forms and styles responding to the differing needs of the church through the ages. This book provides a clear and concise introduction designed both for those to whom the subject is new and those who require a reference work for advanced studies. It begins with an explanation of the liturgies which plainchant was designed to serve. All the chief genres of chant, different types of liturgical book and plainchant notations are described. The later chapters are complemented by plates with commentary and transcriptions. After an exposition of early medieval theoretical writing on plainchant, a historical survey follows the constantly changing nature of the repertory through from the earliest times to the restoration of medieval chant a century ago. The historical relations between Gregorian, Old Roman, Milanese, Spanish and other repertories is considered. Important musicians and centres of composition are discussed together with the establishment of Gregorian chant in all the lands of medieval Europe and the reformations and revisions carried out by the religious orders and the humanists. Copiously illustrated with over 200 musical examples transcribed from original sources, the book highlights the diversity of practice and richness of the chant repertory characteristic of the Middle Ages. As both a self-contained summary and also with its many pointers to further reading, a handbook for research, it will become an indispensable reference book on this vast subject.

The fifteen studies assembled here grew out of research on south Italian ordinary chants and tropes for the multi-volume series Beneventanum Troporum Corpus II edited by John Boe in collaboration with Alejandro Planchart. In the present essays clerical and ordinary chants and tropes of the Mass, especially when derived from paraliturgical hymns and poems, certain aspects of chant notation and particular facets of the old Beneventan and the old Roman chant repertories are examined in relation to the three main cultic centres of the Italian south: Benevento, Montecassino and Rome, and as they relate to their European context, namely Frankish and Norman chant and the varieties of chant sung in Italy north of Rome. The volume includes one previously unpublished study on the Roman introit Salus Populi.
