Sport Management Education Mike Rayner, Tom

Webb, 2022-01-27 This book examines a range of contemporary issues related to the global delivery of sport management education. At a time of unprecedented change in Higher Education the book looks closely at how sport management education can and should deliver positive outcomes in sport business and management outside of the university. The book brings together sport management academics from around the globe and examines how their practice in education has been shaped by the cultural, religious and political context of the national regions in which they work. It aims to identify core principles in sport management education and implementation and discusses the key aspects of sport management programmes from curriculum design and pedagogy to issues around unified accreditation and the needs of employers. It also focuses in on what sport management education might look like in an increasingly digital post COVID world. This is essential reading for all sport management educators and anybody working in sport related professions looking to understand global educational platforms and their implications for policy at local, regional, national and international level

Cases in

Marketing Management Kenneth E. Clow, Donald Baack, 2011-03-28 This comprehensive collection of 38 cases selected from Ivey Publishing helps students understand the complex issues that marketing professionals deal with on a regular basis. The cases were chosen to help students apply conceptual strategic thinking to issues in marketing management as well as provide them with more practical operational ideas and methods. Cases were chosen from around the world from small and large corporations and include household names such as Twitter, Best Buy, Ruth's Chris and Kraft Foods. The majority of the cases are very recent from 2009 or later. Each chapter begins with an introductory review of the topic area prior to the set of cases and questions are included after each case to help students to think critically about the material. Cases in Marketing Management is edited by Kenneth E. Clow and Donald Baack and follows the structure and goals of their textbook Marketing Management: A Customer Oriented Approach. It can also be used as a stand alone text or as a supplement to any other marketing management textbook for instructors who want to more clearly connect theory and practice to actual cases.

Nursing Administration Jacqueline A. Dienemann, 1998 This comprehensive text covers all aspects of nursing administration from the essentials to current trends in practice and it integrates research theory and practice in a health care delivery framework. The book focuses on the impact that public and private environmental influences have on the nursing administrator. The second edition of this popular book features new chapters on cultural diversity, entrepreneurship and leadership. Actual cases or applications accompany each chapter. Nurses and nursing students
