No Other Gods Christian Belief In Dialogue With Buddhism Hinduism And Islam

Daniel J. Adams

No Other Gods Christian Belief In Dialogue With Buddhism Hinduism And Islam:

No Other Gods H. M. Vroom, 1996 Christianity is no longer the dominant belief system in today's pluralistic culture. Eastern religions especially have attracted wide interest. Pressing the theological and dialogical dimensions of religious pluralism, Vroom offers a broad study of the views of Christianity, Buddhism, Hinduism, and Islam, especially their views on truth.

The Non-Western Jesus M. E. Brinkman, Henry Jansen, Lucy Jansen, 2014-12-18 The centre of gravity of contemporary Christianity has shifted to the southern hemisphere where, with the exception of Latin America, almost all Christians are minorities in their home countries. Christians in Asia live amongst Muslim, Hindu, Buddhist, Shamanist, or Taoist majorities, and this context shapes the local Christian theology. The same is true in Africa where traditional religions and beliefs influence African Christians. Central to this change in both Africa and Asia is the creation of a new Jesus, one who accretes local beliefs and concerns and who in that process is transformed. The Non-Western Jesus reveals how a new theology with its own images and concepts is coming into being. A wide range of embodiments of Jesus is examined: Jesus as Avatara and Guru in the Indian context; as Bodhisattva in the Buddhist context; and Jesus within Asian, Chinese, Japanese, Korean, African, and Indonesian religious contexts.

Theology between Church, University and Society N.F.M. Schreurs, Brinkman, Vroom, Wethmar, 2021-11-22. STAR Studies in Theology and Religion 6. Theology between Church, University and Society includes contributions to the international NOSTER conference Theology between Church, University and Society held in the Netherlands in June 2000. In the current academic world, theologians are often suspected of confessionalism, bias, and narrow-mindedness. They in turn try to regain respect by producing specialist historical, empirical, and analytical studies that are in line with other academic research. This retreat into neutrality renders them suspect in the eyes of their religious communities. Some churches react by reformulating their appointment policies and become more strict in order to secure the full loyalty of the theological staff of their institutions. Therefore, many theologians feel a conflict between loyalty to their tradition and loyalty to the academic world. Student populations have also changed considerably during the last few decades. Quite a number of students have a lively interest in religion but no religious affiliation at all. University teachers have to adapt to these new audiences, and faculties need to reorient themselves to reestablish their goals. This volume is concerned with these three challenges: academic, religious, and societal. In all of the contributions, the tension between descriptive research and normative theses or the relation between theology and society at large is discussed. Not only are there descriptions of the structures of theological institutions in the Netherlands, the USA, and South Africa, but also of the relations between churches and theological institutions and Vatican policy regarding theological faculties.

Modern Western Christian Theological Understandings of Muslims Since the Second Vatican Council Mahmut Aydin, 2002

Christian-Muslim Relations in Nigeria Isidore U. Nwanaju, 2008 This book is an intercultural study of Christian-Muslim relationship in Nigeria spanning the pre and post Independence eras. It seeks against the backdrop of the persistent crisis and conflicts to explore avenues for dialogue and harmonious interaction between adherents of the two most patronized albeit non indigenous religions in Nigeria Christianity and Islam The author examines the historical backgrounds of the country s ethnographic and sociopolitical configuration the origin nature and impact of each religion the positive as well as negative dimensions of the relations between Muslims and Christians under various epochs of Nigeria s political life The book concludes with theological overview and prescriptive advocacy on the pathway to inter religious peace and harmony in Nigeria

Bernard Lonergan's Third Way of the Heart and Mind John Raymaker,2016-09-30 Today the world is confronted with many religious wars and the migrations of millions of persons due to these conflicts There is a need for informed dialog as to the roots of the conflicts and ways of addressing these in ways that speak to peoples minds and hearts This is what this book attempts to do from the viewpoint of major religious and ethical thinkers The book relies on Bernard Lonergan s foundational method to address problems systematically with a view to achieve breakthroughs in our openness to one another The book appeals to the teachings of the Buddha Jesus and Mohammad relying on the mystical and insights of these religious founders as well as those of dozens of their followers so as to find commonalities that can build bridges of mercy A global secularity ethics plays a leading role in this book s bridging efforts

Toward a Christian Theology of Religious Pluralism Jacques Dupuis,1997 The results from a lifetime of study reflection and experience in both Europe and Asia is this comprehensive examination of Christian theological understandings of world religious pluralism

Interfaith Theology Dan Cohn-Sherbok,2001-11 Excerpts from the writings of more than 100 theologians and philosophers of religion provide a picture of the contemporary debate over the issue of religious pluralism The readings are from Christian Jewish Muslim Hindu and Buddhist thinkers

Pluralism: The Future of Religion Kenneth Rose,2013-03-28 Theology of religions has defaulted in the last two decades to an epicyclic inclusivism which seeks to undermine pluralism with claims that it is covertly triumphalistic and that it mirrors the logic of exclusivism With the exception of pioneers in the field such as John Hick and Paul Knitter most major figures in this theological field have retreated from pluralism and promote versions of particularism and inclusivism

Pluralism: The Future of Religion argues for an apophatic pluralism that is motivated by the insight that it is impossible to secure universal assent for changeable bodies of religious teachings This insight implies the non finality and consequent departicularization of all religious teachings and their inclusivistic defenses These conclusions point us inevitably toward pluralism and lead us out of the inclusivistic impasse of contemporary theology in religions
