Displaying Women Maureen E. Montgomery, 2016-04-29 Displaying Women explores the role of women in the representation of leisure in turn of the century New York To see and be seen on Fifth Avenue and Broadway in Central Park and in the fashionable uptown hotels and restaurants was one of the fundamental principles in the display aesthetic of New York's fashionable society Maureen E Montgomery argues for a reconsideration of the role of women in the bourgeois elite in turn of the century America By contrasting multiple images of women drawn from newspapers magazines private correspondence etiquette manuals and the New York fiction of Edith Wharton Henry James and others she offers a convincing antidote to the long standing tendency in women's history to overlook women whose class affiliations have put them in a position of power No Place of Grace T.
