No Surrender My Thirty Year War:

No Surrender Hiroo Onoda, 1999 In the Spring of 1974 Second Lieutenant Hiroo Onoda of the Japanese army made world headlines when he emerged from the Philippine jungle after a thirty year ordeal Hunted in turn by American troops the Philippine police hostile islanders and successive Japanese search parties Onoda had skillfully outmaneuvered all his pursuers convinced that World War II was still being fought and that one day his fellow soldiers would return victorious This account of those years is an epic tale of the will to survive that offers a rare glimpse of man's invincible spirit resourcefulness and ingenuity A hero to his people Onoda wrote down his experiences soon after his return to civilization This book was translated into English the following year and has enjoyed an approving audience ever since Book jacket The Shadow

Warriors of Nakano Stephen C. Mercado, 2002 In the history of the twentieth century the role of the military intelligence services in the competition among nations is still murky Among the world's foremost intelligence services those of Imperial Japan remain the least known Few stories are as compelling as those surrounding the Japanese Army's Nakano School From 1938 to 1945 the Nakano School trained more than 2 000 men in intelligence gathering propaganda and irregular warfare Working in the shadows these dedicated warriors executed a range of missions from gathering intelligence in Latin America to leading commando raids against American lines in Papua New Guinea in the Philippines and on Okinawa They played major roles in operations to subvert British rule in India and they organized Japanese civilians into guerrilla units that would have made the invasion of Japan a bloodbath One graduate used his Nakano commando training to elude U S and Philippine military patrols until emerging from the jungle nearly thirty years after the war's end In the decades after World War II graduates of the school worked to obtain from the United States and Russia the release of imprisoned war criminals and the recovery of lost territory including Okinawa Based on archival research and the memoirs of Japanese veterans The Shadow Warriors of Nakano shines a much needed light into the shadows of World War II and postwar Japanese affairs No

Surrender: My Thirty-year War Hiroo Lieutenant Onoda, 1975 Armor, 1975 The magazine of mobile warfare

Homecomings Yoshikuni Igarashi, 2016-09-06 Soon after the end of World War II a majority of the nearly 7 million Japanese civilians and servicemen who had been posted overseas returned home Heeding the call to rebuild these veterans helped remake Japan and enjoyed popularized accounts of their service For those who took longer to be repatriated such as the POWs detained in labor camps in Siberia and the fighters who spent years hiding in the jungles of islands in the South Pacific returning home was more difficult Their nation had moved on without them and resented the reminder of a humiliating traumatizing defeat Homecomings tells the story of these late returning Japanese soldiers and their struggle to adapt to a newly peaceful and prosperous society Some were more successful than others but they all charted a common cultural terrain one profoundly shaped by media representations of the earlier returnees Japan had come to redefine its nationhood through these popular images Yoshikuni Igarashi explores what Japanese society accepted and rejected complicating the definition of a postwar consensus and prolonging the experience of war for both Japanese soldiers and the nation He throws the postwar narrative of Japan's recovery into question exposing the deeper subtler damage done to a country that only belatedly faced the implications of its loss

Asian Loot Charles C. McDougald, 1993 Charles C McDougald lived in Asia for twenty years including ten years in the Philippines from 1972 to 1982 His impeccable research stems from an academic background whose credentials include a bachelor of science degree from the University of Georgia a master's degree from the Asian Institute of Management and a doctorate in business from the University of the Philippines The data he gathered for his doctoral dissertation was the genesis of his 1987 book The Marcos File which exposed the Marcos regime for its corruption and excesses It was while working on a book about Marcos hidden wealth that he stumbled on the story of a treasure hunt headed by Marcos His close friendship with the national security director provided him access to the corridors of power He was asked to find out the truth both about the legendary treasure and the Marcos gold His academic credentials plus his military background he was a captain in the Green Berets in Vietnam made him a natural choice He returned to the Philippines A cave in killed two of his men and overnight this top secret operation made the front page of almost every major newspaper in the world
