Hutton, 2004 A revealing study of one of the twentieth century's most original and influential historians The author of Centuries of Childhood and other landmark historical works Philippe Ariès 1914 1984 was a singular figure in French intellectual life He was both a political reactionary and a path breaking scholar a sectarian royalist who supported the Vichy regime and a founder of the new cultural history popularly known as l'histoire des mentalités that developed in the decades following World War II. In this book Patrick H. Hutton explores the relationship between Aries's life and thought and evaluates his contribution to modern historiography in France and abroad. According to Hutton, the originality of Aries's work and the power of his appeal derived from the way he drew together the two strands of his own intellectual life: his enduring ties to the old cultural order valued by the right-wing Action Française and a newfound appreciation for the methodology of the leftist Annales school of historians. Private life that eventually won him a wide readership and, in late life, an appointment to the faculty of the prestigious École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales. At the same time, he fashioned himself as a man of letters in the intellectual tradition of the Action Française and became a perspicacious journalist as well as a stimulating writer of autobiographical memoirs. In Hutton's view, this helps explain why more than any other historian, Philippe Aries left his personal signature on his scholarship.
