Dow Jones Private Equity Analyst ,2008     Gender and Innovation in the New Economy Seppo Poutanen,Anne Kovalainen,2017-06-05 This book provides a thorough and novel examination of the gendered nature of innovations in the new economy. It tracks the contemporary shift from heavy industry to game industry and how this has altered relationships between gender identity, corporate culture, creative work, and the future of business. Through empirical research and theoretical analysis, the authors present their own carefully contextualized cases and conceptual frameworks relating themes of innovation and gender to recent theories concerning globalization and transnationalism. This wide-ranging and interdisciplinary text provides readers with insightful entries on what innovations are and the ways innovation processes become gendered. It explores the business landscape based on creative work and offers a wealth of information for scholars.

Michigan Journal of International Law ,2004 PC Magazine ,2006 Han Xin Yue Kan ,2014 Trust and Distrust in Digital Economies Philippa Ryan,2019-05-30 In digital economies the Internet enables the platformisation of everything Big technology companies and mobile apps are running mega marketplaces supported by seamless online payments systems This rapidly expanding ecosystem is fueled by data Meanwhile perceptions of the global financial crisis data breaches disinformation and the manipulation of political sentiment have combined to create a modern trust crisis A lack of trust constrains commerce particularly in terms of consumer protection and investment Big data artificial intelligence automated algorithms and blockchain technology offer new solutions and risks Trust in our legal systems depends on certainty consistency and enforceability of the law. However, regulatory and remedial gaps exist because the law has not kept up with technology. This work explores the role of competency and good faith in the creation of social and legal relationships of trust and the need for governance transparency and human accountability to combat distrust particularly in digital economies.
