interviews with a representative sample of Asian Black Latino Native and White undergraduates at Harvard and 20 interviews with students from other universities He first examines students home lives prior to college and campus closures and explores how the pandemic shaped their lives away from campus He looks at those who have jobs and explores how the divergent work experiences that students have shape their broader college experience He looks at students strategies for navigating campus including peer group formation and acclimation to college The final empirical chapter explores how students understand and navigate racial unrest both on campus and in America and how their experiences vary by race The conclusion will outline sensible and practical solutions to aid colleges in their quest to help all students Love Interest
