Reframing Campus Conflict Jennifer Meyer Schrage, Nancy Geist Giacomini, 2023-07-03 This fully revised and updated second edition builds upon the original vision of the first which was to give voice to diverse and inclusive perspectives identities and practices and to enact the principle that student conduct and conflict response must be based upon foundations of social justice and restorative justice to disrupt and transform overly legalistic and escalated management applications in student conduct administration The Spectrum Model Schrage Thompson 2008 approach centers advocacy for inclusive conflict excellence by expanding traditional adjudication pathways to include dialogue conflict coaching mediation restorative practices and shuttle diplomacy for a more robust and inclusive expression of conflict and conduct practices In the intervening decade this co edited work has become more relevant than ever as colleges and universities continue to be the targets of litigation activists lawmakers and public officials who have for instance changed the Title IX rules for responding to sexual misconduct Civility hate crimes activism immigration nationalism and free speech are all again on the forefront of challenges impacting the current campus climate New chapters cover these and other issues including the unprecedented COVID 19 pandemic response and impact on equity and justice in higher education and amplified calls for racial justice and police reform The book is further enhanced by chapter case studies summaries and questions for dialogue to encourage further reflection by the reader and bolster the usefulness of the work as a textbook and campus training guide The second edition is a must have resource for broad stakeholders invested in inclusive conflict excellence and principled leadership in education in the midst of a shifting and increasingly polarized landscape This includes legal counsel higher education presidents senior student affairs administrators and faculty leadership as well as student conduct practitioners across conduct boards hearing and appeal officers residential and organizational staff engaged in student facing campus climate work Reframing Campus Conflict further offers transferable content that supports inclusive conflict excellence inquiry and application in graduate programs K 12 special education and human resource management practices This book is for all educators administrators practitioners and leaders committed to engaging campus conflict work through the inclusive lenses of social restorative transformative and procedural justice This is also available as a set with Student Conduct Practice Second Edition

Dispute System Design Lisa Blomgren Amsler, Janet Martinez, Stephanie E. Smith, 2020-06-02 Dispute System Design walks readers through the art of successfully designing a system for preventing managing and resolving conflicts and legally framed disputes Drawing on decades of expertise as instructors and consultants the authors show how dispute systems design can be used within all types of organizations including business firms nonprofit organizations and international and transnational bodies This book has two parts the first teaches readers the foundations of Dispute System Design DSD describing bedrock concepts and case chapters exploring DSD across a range of experiences including public and community justice conflict within and beyond organizations international and comparative systems and multi jurisdictional and complex systems This book is intended for anyone who is interested in the theory or practice of DSD who uses or wants to understand mediation arbitration court trial or other dispute resolution processes or who designs or improves existing processes and systems
