Internet Commerce Margaret Jane Radin, John Rothchild, Gregory M. Silverman, 2002

The Internet is changing how we communicate with each other, how we gather information, how we form communities and more and more how we engage in commercial transactions. This casebook addresses the last of these transformations. It addresses the law of electronic commerce. It puts together everything needed to teach a course in e-commerce. It addresses all of the important legal issues that arise in conducting business via the Internet, beginning with registration of a domain name and including contracting, protecting intellectual property, complying with government regulations and resolving disputes. It is supplemented with a website that contains online materials referenced in the book as well as updates reflecting important developments in the law of e-commerce.
