Handbook of Research on Adult Learning in Higher Education Okojie, Mabel C.P.O., Boulder, Tinukwa C., 2020-02-01 In today's globalized world professional fields are continually transforming to keep pace with advancing methods of practice. The theory of adult learning specifically is a subject that has seen new innovations and insights with the advancement of online and blended learning. Examining new principles and characteristics in adult learning is imperative as emerging technologies are rapidly shifting the standards of higher education. The Handbook of Research on Adult Learning in Higher Education is a collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of adult education in residential, online, and blended course delivery formats. This book will focus on the impact that culture, globalization, and emerging technology currently has on adult education. While highlighting topics including andragogical principles, professional development, and artificial intelligence, this book is ideally designed for teachers, program developers, instructional designers, technologists, educational practitioners, deans, researchers, higher education faculty, and students seeking current research on new methodologies in adult education. Watch, Listen, Ask, Learn Belinda Dunnick Karge, 2022-11-15 This is your comprehensive resource on providing effective special education services in your school. Written for current and aspiring administrators and teacher leaders, the book offers action items, case studies, and reproducible tools to help you stay in front of special education law, know and support your learning services team, and ensure students with disabilities receive equitable, inclusive education. This book will help district administrators, building leaders, and general and special education teachers understand legal regulations and policy surrounding special education. Think ahead, be proactive, and set up supports for each student. Discover a variety of special education service delivery models and practices. Know how to best support the paraeducators, speech and language specialists, therapists, and other essential staff who comprise their learning services team. Build and sustain strong parent and community support. Utilize an effective MTSS model that includes academics, behavior, and mental health. Embrace the challenge to remain professional learners, whether they're veteran educators or just starting out.
