Music and Messaging in the African Political Arena Onyebadi, Uche T., 2019-01-15 Political campaigning affects numerous realms under the communication umbrella with each channel seeking to influence as many individuals as possible In higher education there is a growing scholarly interest in communication issues and subjects especially on the role of music in the political arena Music and Messaging in the African Political Arena provides innovative insights into providing music and songs as an integral part of sending political messages to a broader spectrum of audiences especially during political campaigns The content within this publication covers such topics as framing theory national identity and ethnic politics and is designed for politicians campaign managers political communication scholars researchers and students Nigerian Pidgin in Lagos Dagmar Deuber, 2005 Accompanying CD ROM contains the complete corpus 40 text files background information on each text in the corpus 40 Word files samples from the corpus with English translations and clickable audio 6 Word files Appendix C PDF list of speakers PDF and 7 tracks playable on a CD player p iv Handbook of Research on Discourse Behavior and Digital Communication: Language Structures and Social Interaction Taiwo, Rotimi, 2010-05-31 A compendium of over 50 scholarly works on discourse behavior in digital communication Manual of Romance Forensic Linguistics Victoria Guillén-Nieto, Dieter Stein, 2025-06-02 It is evident that published serious science based work in Forensic Linguistics is predominantly written in English and focuses on casework from the English speaking world While the first aspect is understandable given that English serves as an international lingua franca in scientific discourse the second aspect presents a significant limitation for the field Should researchers assume that there is simply less crime in non English speaking areas of the world A more pertinent question might be What cultural disciplinary legal or legal cultural factors contribute to the lack of research in and on languages other than English In addition to addressing the underrepresentation of Romance languages in scientific publications related to forensic work the chapters in this handbook will also explore the reasons behind this unfortunate situation Designed to engage readers whether they are linguists legal professionals or simply interested individuals and to spark interest in Romance Forensic Linguistics this handbook follows three key objectives First we are committed to providing a comprehensive overview of the casework and research conducted in and on several Romance languages including Peninsular Spanish Catalan Brazilian Portuguese French Canadian French Italian and Romanian Second the chapters in this volume seek to understand why Forensic Linguistics has thrived more in some Romance speaking countries than in others Finally we aim to uncover the reasons for the slower development of Forensic Linguistics in regions where Romance languages are predominantly spoken The Literature and Arts of the Niger Delta Tanure Ojaide, Enajite Eseoghene Ojaruega, 2021-04-19 This book examines the depiction of the Delta region of Nigeria through literature and other cultural art forms The Niger Delta has been thrust into the global limelight due to resource extraction and conflict but it is also a region with a rich culture environment and heritage The creative imagination of the area's artists has been fuelled by the area's pressing concerns of indigenous peoples' minority discourse, environmental degradation, climate change, multinational corporations' greed, dictatorship, and people's struggle for control of their resources. Taking a holistic approach to the Niger Delta experience, this book showcases artistic responses from literature, visual arts, and performances such as masquerades, dances, and festivals. Chapters cover authors, artists, and performers such as Ben Okri, Ken Saro Wiwa, Isidore Okpewho, J. P. Clark, and Bruce Onobrakpeya, as well as topics like the famous Benin bronze figures and Urhobo Ude dance. Affirming the wealth and diversity of the region, which continues to inspire creative artistic productions, The Literature and Arts of the Niger Delta will be of interest to researchers of African literature, arts, and other cultural productions.

Sounds of Resistance Eunice Rojas, Lindsay Michie, 2013-10-08 From the gospel music of slavery in the antebellum South to anti-apartheid freedom songs in South Africa, this two-volume work documents how music has fueled resistance and revolutionary movements in the United States and worldwide. Political resistance movements and the creation of music, two seemingly unrelated phenomena, often result from the seed of powerful emotions, opinions, or experiences. This two-volume set presents essays that explore the connections between diverse musical forms and political activism across the globe, revealing fascinating similarities regarding the interrelationship between music and political resistance in widely different geographic or cultural circumstances. The breadth of specific examples covered in Sounds of Resistance: The Role of Music in Multicultural Activism highlights strong similarities between diverse situations, for example, protest against the Communist government in Poland and drug discourse in hip-hop music in the United States, and demonstrates how music has repeatedly played a vital role in energizing or expanding various political movements. By exploring activism and how music relates to specific movements through an interdisciplinary lens, the authors document how music often enables powerless members of oppressed groups to communicate or voice their concerns.

Arrest the Music! Tejumola Olaniyan, 2004-10-29 Olaniyan has given us a profound and beautifully integrated book which culminates in a persuasive interpretation of the relationship between Fela's apparently incompatible presentational selves. The book's accessible and evocative prose is in itself a kind of homage to Fela's continual ability to seduce and astonish. This is such an attractive book you feel like ransacking your collection for Fela tapes. Karin Barber, an indispensable companion to Fela's music and a rich source of information for studies in modern African popular music.

Akin Euba, Arrest the Music is a lively musical study of Fela Anikulapo Kuti, one of Africa's most recognizable popular and controversial musicians. The flamboyant originator of the Afrobeat sound and self-proclaimed voice of the voiceless, Fela used music, sharp-tongued lyrics, and derisive humor to challenge the shortcomings of Nigerian and postcolonial African states. Looking at the social context, instrumentation, lyrics, visual art, people, and organizations through which Fela produced his music, Tejumola Olaniyan offers a wider, more suggestive perspective on Fela and his impact on listeners in all parts of the world. Placing Fela front and center, Olaniyan underscores important social issues such as authenticity racial and cultural identity the relationship of popular culture to radical politics and the meaning of postcolonialism nationalism and globalism in contemporary Africa Readers interested in music culture society and politics whether or not they know Fela and his music will find this work invaluable for understanding the career of an African superstar and the politics of popular culture in contemporary Africa African Expressive Cultures Patrick McNaughton general editor Kunapipi ,1991 Literature and National Consciousness Ernest Emenyonu,1989 New Foundations for a Science of Text and Discourse Robert de Beaugrande,1997-02 A magnum opus in the now vast domain of discourse studies whose history methods and subdomains nobody knows as well as Robert de Beugrande No other book in the humanities and social sciences today integrates such encyclopedic knowledge into a thoroughly transdisciplinary international intercultural and critical program For all advanced students of discourse this book should be their major mentor guide and compendium of research Teun A van Dijk University of Amsterdam and Editor of the journals Text and Discourse and Society Professor de Beugrande has been one of the most influential scholars in text linguistics since he helped to found it as a discipline He commands a large panorama of knowledge and brings this learning to bear on a variety of topics giving fresh insights and new dimensions In his latest book he ranges over linguistic educational and cultural disciplines in order to synthesize an important framework within which text and discourse can be understood in new ways John Sinclair Birmingham University and Editor in Chief of Collins COBUILD English Language Dictionary Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,1995 Ibadan Journal of English Studies ,2011 Fundamentals of Adult Education ,1991 Techno-politics and the Production of Knowledge Wale Adebani,2005 Issues in Contemporary Nigeria Development Ngozi Ojiakor,G.
