Betrayal Houston A. Baker, 2008 Houston A Baker Jr condemns those black intellectuals who he believes have turned their backs on the tradition of racial activism in America These individuals choose personal gain over the interests of the black majority whether they are espousing neoconservative positions that distort the contours of contemporary social and political dynamics or abandoning race as an important issue in the study of American literature and culture Most important they do a disservice to the legacy of W E B Du Bois Martin Luther King Jr and others who have fought for black rights In the literature speeches and academic and public behavior of some black intellectuals in the past quarter century Baker identifies a hungry generation eager for power respect and money Baker critiques his own impoverished childhood in the Little Africa section of Louisville Kentucky to understand the shaping of this new public figure He also revisits classical sites of African American literary and historical criticism and critique Baker devotes chapters to the writing and thought of such black academic superstars as Cornel West Michael Eric Dyson and Henry Louis Gates Jr Hoover Institution senior fellow Shelby Steele Yale law professor Stephen Carter and Manhattan Institute fellow John McWhorter His provocative investigation into their disingenuous posturing exposes what Baker deems a tragic betrayal of King s legacy Baker concludes with a discussion of American myth and the role of the U S prison industrial complex in the disappearing of blacks Baker claims King would have criticized these black intellectuals for not persistently raising their voices against a private prison system that incarcerates so many men and women of color To remedy this situation Baker urges black intellectuals to forge both sacred and secular connections with local communities and rededicate themselves to social responsibility As he sees it the mission of the black intellectual today is not to do great things but to do specific racially based work that is in the interest of the black majority
