The Lion's Historian Sandra Swart, 2025-05-06 Until the lion has a historian of his own the tale of the hunt will always glorify the hunter Sandra Swart takes up the challenge of that African proverb and with this book becomes the lion's historian As a species humans are not alone but our history has been written as though we were Swart insists on a multispecies retelling of our more than human past as she reconstructs a shifting series of significant interspecies relationships from quirky idiosyncratic connections to others that triggered major changes Embracing a radical interdisciplinarity informed by a background in history and environmental studies Swart combines the natural sciences with the social sciences oral history indigenous knowledge and archival research She blends current thinking about animal sentience agency cognition and emotion to offer a new way to understand animals roles in our shared history The animals in this book baboons cows elephants hippos horses jackals lions Nazi cattle okapi police dogs quagga sheep and white ants exemplify different facets of our shared past With this animal centric lens decades of research come together in a collection that takes animals seriously It is a book with claws and fangs tearing through conventional narratives to ask Are we prepared to move beyond the convention that history is the story of only our own species
