Opening For Kindergarten Graduation:

How to Open and Operate a Financially Successful Child Care Service Tina Musial, 2007 Book CD ROM There are nearly 12 million children under the age of five in child care each week in the United States The trend is to move away from large operations and turn to the small services This increase in small day care operations creates a huge opportunity for someone who loves children and wants to create a business dedicated to their care A child care service makes a ideal part time or home based business with low start up costs You need an office but no costly specialist equipment All that is needed to get started is an approved facility and a desire to succeed This book with CD ROM contains all the relevant forms as well business plan to adapt to your own use Word Recognition in Beginning Literacy Jamie L. Metsala, Linnea C.

Ehri, 2013-06-17 This edited volume grew out of a conference that brought together beginning reading experts from the fields of education and the psychology of reading and reading disabilities so that they could present and discuss their research findings and theories about how children learn to read words instructional contexts that facilitate this learning background experiences prior to formal schooling that contribute and sources of difficulty in disabled readers The chapters bring a variety of perspectives to bear on a single cluster of problems involving the acquisition of word reading ability It is the editors keen hope that the insights and findings of the research reported here will influence and become incorporated into the development of practicable classroom based instructional programs that succeed in improving children s ability to become skilled readers Furthermore they hope that these insights and findings will become incorporated into the working knowledge that teachers apply when they teach their students to read and into further research on reading acquisition
