Opening The Eye Of New Awareness:

Opening the Eye of New Awareness Dalai Lama XIV Bstan-'dzin-rgya-mtsho, 1999 An introduction to Buddhism written by the Dalai Lama himself provides a complete look at the Buddhist philosophies and ideals as well as the virtue of treating others with kindness and compassion Reprint Fragrant Rivers of Wisdom A. Christian van Gorder, 2021-12-09

Buddhism and Christianity are ancient rich and multivalent wisdom spirituality traditions that often have insightful similarities as well as distinct perspectives from entirely different starting points. Fragrant Rivers of Wisdom explores some of these paths and encourages readers to gain as far as is possible a participant's appreciation of another faith. This book aims to help readers celebrate and enjoy the rich wisdom legacies of a teacher revealing a pure lotus blossoming from mud and the legacies of a peasant Jewish carpenter from Galilee revealing love on a cross. Both teachers share the power of love the joys of healing encouragement and the creative resources of spirit filled living. Their ancient words and their modern communities still following these paths are dynamically relevant for our modern context of confusion and challenge.

Chinese Ways of Seeing and Open-Air Painting Yi Gu, 2021-02-01 How did modern Chinese painters see landscape? Did they depict nature in the same way as premodern Chinese painters? What does the artistic perception of modern Chinese painters reveal about the relationship between artists and the nation state? Could an understanding of modern Chinese landscape painting tell us something previously unknown about art, political change and the epistemological and sensory regime of twentieth century China? Yi Gu tackles these questions by focusing on the rise of open air painting in modern China. Chinese artists almost never painted outdoors until the late 1910s when the New Culture Movement prompted them to embrace direct observation, linear perspective and a conception of vision based on Cartesian optics. The new landscape practice brought with it unprecedented emphasis on perception and redefined artistic expertise. Central to the pursuit of open air painting from the late 1910s right through to the early 1960s was a reinvigorated and ever growing urgency to see suitably as a Chinese and to see the Chinese homeland correctly. Examining this long overlooked ocular turn, Gu not only provides an innovative perspective from which to reflect on complicated interactions of the global and local in China but also calls for rethinking the nature of visual modernity there.
