Rethinking Plato Necip Fikri Alican,2012 Preliminary Material INTRODUCTION LIFE OF PLATO THOUGHT OF PLATO WORKS OF PLATO EUTHYPHRO APOLOGY CRITO PHAEDO CONCLUSION WORKS CITED BIBLIOGRAPHIC GUIDE TO FURTHER STUDY ABOUT THE AUTHOR INDEX OF NAMES INDEX OF SUBJECTS VIBS The Life of Breath in Literature, Culture and Medicine David Fuller,Corinne Saunders,Jane Macnaughton,2021-10-01 This open access book studies breath and breathing in literature and culture and provides crucial insights into the history of medicine health and the emotions the foundations of beliefs concerning body spirit and world the connections between breath and creativity and the phenomenology of breath and breathlessness Contributions span the classical medieval early modern Romantic Victorian modern and contemporary periods drawing on medical writings philosophy theology and the visual arts as well as on literary historical and cultural studies The collection illustrates the complex significance and symbolic power of breath and breathlessness across time breath is written deeply into ideas of nature spirituality emotion creativity and being and is inextricable from notions of consciousness spirit inspiration voice feeling freedom and movement The volume also demonstrates the long standing connections between breath and place politics and aesthetics illuminating both contrasts and continuities Oxford University Press Oxford University Press,1926 The Life and Health of the Mind in Classical Greek Medical Thought Chiara Thumiger,2017-06-09 The first substantial history of psychological thought in Classical Greek medicine showing the relevance of ancient ideas to modern debates General Catalogue, 1927 Oxford University Press,1927 Being is Better Than Not Being Christopher V. Mirus,2022-03-18 In his contemplative works on nature Aristotle twice appeals to the general principle that being is better than not being Taking his cue from this claim Christopher V Mirus offers an extended systematic account of how Aristotle understands being itself to be good Mirus begins with the human examining Aristotle s well known claim that the end of a human life is the good of the human substance as such which turns out to be the good of the human capacity for thought Human thought however is not concerned with human affairs alone It is also contemplative and contemplation is oriented toward the beauty of its objects In each of the three branches of contemplative thought mathematics natural science and theology the intelligibility of being renders it beautiful to thought Both in nature and in human life moreover the being that is beautiful through its intelligibility serves also as an end of motion and of action hence it counts not only as beautiful kalon but also as good agathon The persistent concern of thought with the beautiful reveals what is at stake for human beings in Aristotle s larger metaphysics of the good in the connection between goodness and actuality that structures his natural science and metaphysics in his explicit claim that being is better than not being and in his concepts of order and determinacy which help connect being with goodness These in turn shed light on his concepts of the complete and the self sufficient on his teleological understanding of the four elements and on the curious role of the honorable in his natural science and metaphysics The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1972 Reference
