Opposing Ambitions Gender And Identity In An Alternative Organization:

Opposing Ambitions Sherryl Kleinman, 1996-06-15 Renewal is a holistic health center run by baby boomers whose political ideals were shaped by the counterculture movements of the 1960s Through interviews and observation Sherryl Kleinman takes us inside Renewal and shows us how its members struggled to maintain a view of themselves as progressive and alternative even as they sought conventional legitimacy In Opposing Ambitions we meet the members of Renewal as individuals learn about the differences in power prestige and respect they are accorded why they talked endlessly about money and how they related to each other Kleinman shows how members attempt to see themselves as unconventional but also as serious operators of a legitimate health care organization led them to act in ways that undermined their egalitarian goals She draws out the lessons Renewal offers for understanding the problems women face in organizations the failure of social movements to live up to their ideals and how it is possible for progressives to avoid reproducing the inequalities they claim to oppose

Dirk vom Lehn,Natalia Ruiz-Junco,Will Gibson,2021-05-26 The Routledge International Handbook of Interactionism demonstrates the promise and diversity of the interactionist perspective in social science today providing students and practitioners with an overview of the impressive developments in interactionist theory methods and research Thematically organized it explores the history of interactionism and the contemporary state of the field considering the ways in which scholars approach topics that are central to interactionism As such it presents discussions of self identity gender and sexuality race emotions social organization media and the internet and social problems With attention to new developments in methods and methodologies including digital ethnography visual methods and research ethics the authors also engage with new areas of investigation that have emerged in light of current societal developments such as policing and police violence interactionism beyond binaries and social media Providing a comprehensive overview of the current state and possible future of interactionist research it will appeal to interactionist scholars as well as to established sociologists and students of sociology who have an interest in latest developments in interactionism      Enabling Creative Chaos Katherine Kang-Ning Chen,2009-09 In the summer of 2008 nearly fifty thousand people traveled to Nevada s Black Rock Desert to participate in the countercultural arts event Burning Man Founded on a commitment to expression and community the annual weeklong festival presents unique challenges to its organizers Over four years Katherine K Chen regularly participated in organizing efforts to safely and successfully create a temporary community in the middle of the desert under the hot August sun Enabling Creative Chaos tracks how a small underfunded group of organizers transformed into an unconventional corporation with a ten million dollar budget and two thousand volunteers Over the years Burning Man s organizers have experimented with different management models learned how to recruit motivate and retain volunteers and developed strategies to handle regulatory agencies and respond to media coverage This remarkable evolution Chen reveals offers important lessons for managers in any organization particularly in uncertain times      Civil Society and the Democratic Imagination Andrew Jonathan Perrin,2001      Humanity & Society ,2002      The Sociologically Examined Life Michael Schwalbe,2001 This lively and concise supplemental text uses analyses of everyday conversations and experiences to inspire students to think sociologically about society and about themselves as social actors      Down to Earth Sociology James M. Henslin,1997 The bestselling reader for Introduction to Sociology courses on the college level has now been extensively revised and expanded The articles range from the sociology of gender power politics sports and religion to the contemporary crises of violent crime poverty homelessness and AIDS      Compromise, Confrontation and Coercion Elizabeth A. Hoffmann,2001      It Was Like a Fever Francesca Polletta,2006-05 Activists and politicians have long recognized the power of a good story to move people to action In early 1960 four black college students sat down at a whites only lunch counter in Greensboro North Carolina and refused to leave Within a month sit ins spread to thirty cities in seven states Student participants told stories of impulsive spontaneous action this despite all the planning that had gone into the sit ins It was like a fever they said Francesca Polletta s It Was Like a Fever sets out to account for the power of storytelling in mobilizing political and social movements Drawing on cases ranging from sixteenth century tax revolts to contemporary debates about the future of the World Trade Center site Polletta argues that stories are politically effective not when they have clear moral messages but when they have complex often ambiguous ones The openness of stories to interpretation has allowed disadvantaged groups in particular to gain a hearing for new needs and to forge surprising political alliances But popular beliefs in America about storytelling as a genre have also hurt those challenging the status quo A rich analysis of storytelling in courtrooms newsrooms public forums and the United States Congress It Was Like a Fever offers provocative new insights into the dynamics of culture and contention     After the Barnraising Joseph Zachariah Schiller,2005

Serving the People Eileen M. Otis,2003

Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Opposing Ambitions Gender And Identity In An Alternative Organization : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Pape, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
