
A photograph of a dirt road winding through a forest. The trees on either side have autumn-colored foliage in shades of orange, yellow, and brown. The road leads towards a bright, hazy light at the end of the path, creating a strong sense of perspective. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

Si vis pacem, para bellum – If you want peace, prepare for war.

Para Bellum Prepare For War:

Para Bellum Paul Simanaukas, 2009-12-08 Mankind has waged war throughout the ages Gary Bronski loathes war as much as he loathes himself As the end draws near choices must be made which will impact every living soul on the planet Gary must face his fears face his enemies and prepare for war From War to Diplomatic Parity in Eleventh-Century China David Wright, 2005-08-01 This study of relations between Sung China 960 1279 and Kitan Liao 916 1125 a state on Sung's northern border is both a military and diplomatic history and a history of diplomacy Its first chapters historically contextualise the equality of Sung Liao diplomacy and narrate how during the late tenth and early eleventh centuries the two states fought each other to a standstill before concluding peace at Shan y an in 1005 Later chapters cover the forms and textures of peaceful diplomatic contact between Sung and Liao that endured for the rest of the century It will be useful for scholars and interested general readers who wish to probe beyond generalisations and explore in more detail mid imperial China's warfare and diplomacy with its northern neighbours Secrets on Display Mark Stout, Sarah-Jane Corke, 2025-06-24 Secrets on Display takes readers on a tour of the thrilling real life history of intelligence and espionage from around the world With tales of spies codebreakers moles terrorist hunters spy chiefs propagandists and secret agents these new histories uncover a world that many of us only see in the movies Bringing together stories and artifacts from the International Spy Museum in Washington DC this book makes the world's largest museum devoted to intelligence history accessible to everyone Secrets on Display brings this hidden history to life with over 200 photographs including over 100 color images of artifacts among them James Bond's Aston Martin DB5 the axe used to assassinate Leon Trotsky a portion of the secret MI6 and CIA tunnel beneath East Berlin and a precursor to the Predator drone as well as concealment devices secret cameras disguise kits cipher machines and a host of other rare objects seldom seen by the public These stories told by historians intelligence officers and museum professionals will fascinate scholars intrigue practitioners and entice those interested in a world of secrecy that most of us can scarcely imagine Political Science and Chinese Political Studies Sujian Guo, 2012-07-25 We have witnessed the substantial transformation of China studies particularly Chinese political studies in the past 30 years due to changes in China and its rising status in the world as well as changes in our ways of conducting research As area studies specialists we are no longer isolated from the larger disciplines of Political Science and International Relations IR but an integral part of them This book contains theoretically innovative contributions by distinguished political scientists from inside and outside China who together offer up to date overviews of the state of the field of Chinese political studies combines empirical and normative researches as well as theoretical exploration and case studies explore the relationship between Western political science scholarship and contemporary Chinese political studies examine the logic and methods of political science and their scholarly application and most recent developments in the study of Chinese politics and discuss the hotly contested and debated issues in Chinese political studies such as universality and particularity regularity and diversity scientification and indigenization main problems challenges opportunities and directions for the disciplinary and intellectual development of Chinese political studies in the context of rising China A Cultural Strategy for Global Peace and Prosperity Gebhard Deissler, 2012-02-22 Research Paper postgraduate from the year 2012 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance course Global Management language English abstract Si vis pacem para bellum versus Si vis pacem para pacem For times immemorial man has sought to achieve a state of freedom from outer conflict guided by the pole of the above continuum designated by the Ancient Romans as Si vis pacem para bellum translating as If you want peace prepare for war Those who deviated strongly from this implicit assumption by positioning themselves differently on the continuum and thereby reversed this logic were disappointing the mainstream cultures of their eras and were considered out group personae non gratae by the dominant cultural players This study shows how the dilemma could be resolved Conversations on War and General Culture Sir Arthur Helps, 1871

Neighborhoods of the Plantation Kaustuv Roy, 2008-01-01 The plantation is a slave society a means and a system of usurpation of life energies and bodily productive capacities in the service of endless bankruptcy on the one hand and elite persuasions on the other The book argues in part that war or State organized violence is one of the most efficient means of the elite transfer the wreckage through war and destruction of ordinary livability opens up the human as organic compounds in the turning of human life into global plantation assets More importantly the book argues that this is possible only by means of certain ontological and epistemological deployments that make war on the human ecological inevitable and even acceptable This is where pedagogy comes in The temporal being the spatial being and the linguistic being of the human ecological are explored as three dimensions of captivity as well as the means of escape The book rejects the politics of power as inimical to the very becoming of the human and posits the politics of strength as a new possibility that breaks with the plantation system of organized violence and vampiric wealth production The war in relation to our social system, an address Charles Savile Roundell, 1900

Cinema and Classical Texts Martin M. Winkler, 2009-02-12 This book interprets films as visual texts and demonstrates the affinities between Greco Roman literature and the cinema The Herald of peace , 1888 American Advocate of Peace , 1892 The Great Air War Aaron Norman, 1968 The Great Air War is the first comprehensive account of the battle fliers their planes and their vital role in World War I Aerial combat in the war to end war was an utterly unprecedented new chapter in military potential of the flying machine was unfathomed It had been only a decade since Orville Wright had made history's first successful airplane flight High ranking officers in all countries dismissed the use of the plane for any purpose except possible reconnoitering But as the war progressed aviation technology boomed the plane became a lethal weapon and a new warrior breed was born The story of these men the now legendary heroes and their man to man encounters their breathtaking victories and heartbreaking defeats is spellbinding Aaron Norman seats the reader right in the cockpit beside the great aces and many less famous but equally courageous airmen Some of the individual stories rank with the classics of adventure literature Colourful biographies of the top aces of each nation and their victory scores are a feature of the Great Air War The various war planes are described in detail the Sopwiths Nieuports Fokkers Spads Albatroses SE 5 s and performance strong points and weaknesses The incredible story of Count Zeppelin s terrifying if vulnerable dirigibles is recounted at length It was with this giant craft that the German high command hoped to bring Britain to her knees and the dramatic picture of these monsters hovering ominously in the night skies over England is one of the many high spots of the book For its complete story of the monumental action as the seesaw battle went on for supremacy in the sky and for its many anecdotal stories in human terms throughout The Great Air War is superb reading the book in its entirety is also of major importance as history since the chronicle of World War I is incomplete without this first full coverage of the part played in it by ariel combat The illustrations add to the comprehensive coverage There are two 16 page inserts of photographs 65 photos in all and 54 side view drawings of the planes With full index appendices and bibliography Publisher The Herald of peace. April/June 1822-Jan./March 1824 [Imperf.]. International peace society,1898 The Tensiometer Prediction of Nations Likely to be Involved in International War in the Years 1977-1980 Alan G. Newcombe,1977 The Herald of Peace and International Arbitration ,1889 The Contemporary Review ,1871 War, Peace, and International Politics David W. Ziegler,1993 War Peace and International Politics Eighth Edition begins by examining a unique characteristic of international relations war The text seeks to discover the causes of war by looking at historical cases and moves from these cases to theories about the causes of war It then looks at a variety of proposals for eliminating war or if not eliminating then reducing its incidence or ameliorating its effects Ten different approaches to reducing conflict are assessed for weaknesses and strengths A Military Dictionary George Elliot Voyle,G. de Saint-Clair-Stevenson,1876
