Nice Book Trolley Problem Mysteries Berkeley Lectures:

The Trolley Problem Mysteries Frances Myrna Kamm, Judith Jarvis Thomson, Thomas Hurka, Shelly Kagan, 2016 A rigorous treatment of a thought experiment that has become notorious within and outside of philosophy The Trolley Problem by one of the most influential moral philosophers alive today Suppose you can stop a trolley from killing five people but only by turning it onto a side track where it will kill one May you turn the trolley What if the only way to rescue the five is to topple a bystander in front of the trolley so that his body stops it but he dies May you use a device to stop the trolley that will kill a bystander as a side effect The Trolley Problem challenges us to explain and justify our different intuitive judgments about these and related cases and has spawned a huge literature F M Kamm s 2013 Tanner Lectures present some of her views on this notorious moral conundrum After providing a brief history of changing views of what the problem is about and attempts to solve it she focuses on two prominent issues Does who turns the trolley and how the harm is shifted affect the moral permissibility of acting The answers to these questions lead to general proposals about when we may and may not harm some to help others Three distinguished philosophers Judith Jarvis Thomson one of the originators of the trolley problem Thomas Hurka and Shelly Kagan then comment on Kamm s proposals She responds to each comment at length providing an exceptionally rich elaboration and defense of her views The Trolley Problem Mysteries is an invaluable resource not only to philosophers concerned about the Trolley Problem but to anyone worried about how we ought to act when we can lessen harm to some by harming others and how we can reach a decision about the question

The Will to Punish Didier Fassin, 2018 Over the last few decades most societies have become more repressive their laws more relentless their magistrates more inflexible independently of the evolution of crime In The Will to Punish using an approach both genealogical and ethnographic distinguished anthropologist Didier Fassin addresses the major issues raised by this punitive moment through an inquiry into the very foundations of punishment What is punishment Why punish Who is punished Through these three questions he initiates a critical dialogue with moral philosophy and legal theory on the definition the justification and the distribution of punishment Discussing various historical and national contexts mobilizing a ten year research program on police justice and prison and taking up the legacy of Friedrich Nietzsche and Michel Foucault he shows that the link between crime and punishment is an historical artifact that the response to crime has not always been the infliction of pain that punishment does not only proceed from rational logics used to legitimize it that more severity in sentencing often means increasing social inequality before the law and that the question What should be punished always comes down to the questions Whom do we deem punishable and Whom do we want to be spared Going against a triumphant penal populism this investigation proposes a salutary revision of the presuppositions that nourish the passion for punishing and invites to rethink the place of punishment in the contemporary world The theses developed in the volume are discussed by criminologist David Garland historian Rebecca McLennan and sociologist Bruce Western to whom Didier Fassin responds
