Trust and Brand Management Hanna Górska-Warsewicz, 2024-12-23 Trust and Brand Management covers the main topics of heritage based corporate brand management and its relationship to external factors and performance. The benefits for readers of this book lie in several aspects: knowledge of corporate brand management, brand heritage and related concepts, theoretical and practical foundations of brand management and brand heritage, and empirically supported research on the relationship among brand heritage, brand management practices, antecedents and outcomes of heritage based corporate brand management. This book consists of two parts. The first part provides a literature review and theoretical and practical background on brand heritage, its antecedents and outcomes, brand management approaches and heritage based corporate brand management. The second part presents the results of an empirical study as structural equation modeling to establish the relationship among brand heritage, corporate brand management practices, antecedents, brand history, culture, identity and authenticity, and outcomes of heritage based corporate brand management, brand trust, brand equity and performance. In addition, the book includes 31 case studies of well known heritage brands presenting their history, marketing, communications development and positioning strategies. The benefit for managers is the presentation of terms and specific tools related to corporate brand management in the market and customer outcomes.

Landscape and Branding Nicole Porter, 2015-10-05 Landscape and branding explores the way landscape is conceptualised, conceived, represented and designed by professionals in a brand driven age. Landscape incorporating tangible physical space as well as intangible concepts, narratives, images and experiences of place is constructed by a number of creative industries. This book tests the hypothesis that place branding, a powerful marketing and management practice, increasingly blurs the distinction between the promotion of landscape and its production in design terms. Place branding involves the strategic and systematic composition of single minded experiential and market friendly place identities which are consistently communicated across various media including physical space. How does this implicate or transform notions of place, nature, landscape, experience and the qualitative value of landscape itself? How does this affect the role of landscape architecture? To answer these questions, place branding theory and practice is critically examined alongside an in depth case study of one specific landscape, the Blue Mountains Australia Projects undertaken between 1995 and 2015, including a branding strategy for the region, media campaigns, television, cinema and several landscape architectural works in the public and private domain are comparatively analysed focusing on the discourse, conventions and values informing their production and the landscape narratives they convey.

Audio Branding

Laurence Minsky, Colleen Fahey, 2017-03-03. Audio Branding is a concise practical guide on the influential world of audio branding what it is why it's important and how it can be used to enhance a brand. Consider the familiar tune of a branded ringtone the bubbly sounds of Skype and even the chosen sound bite for a branded car unlocking as the driver presses the key. How do these choices tie into a wider brand identity Which emotions do they spark and most importantly how do these choices enhance brand association with the consumer. Audio Branding delivers fascinating insights into this area of marketing underpinned by practical step by step guidance and cutting edge research to enhance brand loyalty through user experience. Written by authors who have contributed directly to the development of this field the book contains an enlightening set of case studies including companies such as Renault a surprisingly emotional audio brand Atlanta Convention Visitors Bureau a warm energetic audio brand and Michelin a globally coherent audio brand. Covering issues such as the dominance of audio enabled devices and the phenomenon of continuous partial attention. Audio Branding demonstrates how brands can infuse sound into so many different aspects of their identity building in a subtle longevity of brand presence through daily user experience
