Torn Many Ways Max Krüger, Debora De Castro Leal, David Randall, Peter Tolmie, 2023-10-09 This edited collection brings together a range of experiences from the field largely in the context of CSCW and HCI. It focuses specifically on the experiences of people who have worked in difficult, tense, delicate, and sometimes conflictual and dangerous settings. The tensions faced by researchers and more importantly how they manage to deal with them are often under-remarked. Unlike the bulk of published ethnographic work the chapters in this book deal more explicitly with the various practical problems that researchers with varying degrees of experience face. Our aim in this book is to give a voice to researchers who have sometimes contended with unexpected issues and who sometimes have had to face them on their own. We explore incidents which may entail emotional conflict, embarrassment, and shame; feelings of isolation, arguments with other members of a team, political pressures and ideological confusions to name but a few. Senior figures in research laboratories and elsewhere may provide intellectual direction and support but may not always recognise the personal and problematic nature of qualitative enquiry undertaken by relatively inexperienced researchers. The chapters examine feelings of isolation, the difficulty of taking sides, the negotiation of personal, ethical, and political pressures in the field, and dealing with conflicting visions of what the research should be about. The book is a resource for those embarking on the challenges of working in unfamiliar or difficult settings and moreover should act as a reminder to academics who might have forgotten the practical issues that researchers can face and how they deal with them.

Proceedings of the International Conference Theory and Applications in the Knowledge Economy TAKE 2018

Gaby Neumann, Justyna Majewska, Szymon Truskolaski, 2018-07-08 Foreword TAKE 2018 follows with success the two previous editions. We gather 60 papers presented by scholars from 15 countries which address the complex relation between theory and applications in the realm of the knowledge economy. We address specific aspects of knowledge management, human resource development and management, intellectual capital and many other scientific areas relevant for the economy of today. We hope these proceedings will summarize and illustrate well what happened in the conference and look forward for next years edition. Thank you very much for your participation as local organizer, keynote speaker, stream leader, reviewer, author, helper or just participant. Eduardo Tom Conference Chair Poznan July 2018

Fintech and the Remaking of Financial Institutions

John Hill, 2018-05-17 Fintech and the Remaking of Financial Institutions explores the transformative potential of new entrants and innovations on business models. In its survey and analysis of Fintech the book addresses current and future states of money and banking. It provides broad contexts for understanding financial services products, technology, regulations and social considerations. The book shows how Fintech has evolved and will drive the future of financial services while other Fintech books concentrate on particular solutions and adopt perspectives of individual users, companies and investors. It sheds new light on disruption, innovation and opportunity by placing the financial technology revolution in larger contexts. Presents case studies that depict the problems, solutions and opportunities associated with FinTech Provides global coverage of FinTech ventures and regulatory guidelines Analyzes FinTech s social aspects and its potential for spreading to new areas in banking Sheds new light on disruption innovation and opportunity by placing the financial technology revolution in larger contexts
