New York Magazine ,1981-09-14 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Dublin University Review ,1885 The Review of Reviews William Thomas Stead,1894

Dublin University Review ,1885 The University correspondent and University correspondence college magazine (and The Educational review). ,1891 The American Monthly Review of Reviews ,1900 The American Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1925 The Cambridge Review ,1894 Sport in America, Volume II David K. Wiggins,2009-11-11 Sport in America From Colonial Leisure to Celebrity Figures and Globalization Volume II presents 18 thought provoking essays focusing on the changes and patterns in American sport during six distinct eras over the past 400 years The selections are entirely different from those in the first volume discussing diverse topics such as views of sport in the Puritan society of colonial New England gender roles and the croquet craze of the 1800s and the Super Bowl s place in contemporary sport Each of the six parts includes an introduction to the essays allowing readers to relate them to the cultural changes and influences of the period Readers will find essays on well known topics written by established scholars as well as new approaches and views from recent studies Suitable for use as a stand alone or supplemental text in undergraduate and graduate sport history courses Sport in America provides students with opportunities to examine selected sport topics in more depth realize a greater understanding of sport throughout history and consider the interrelationships of sport and other societal institutions Essays are arranged chronologically from the early American period to the present day to provide the proper historical context and offer perspective on changes that have occurred in sport over time Also a list of suggested readings provided in each part offers readers the opportunity to expand their thinking on the nature of sport throughout American history Essays on how Pinehurst Golf Course was created the interconnection between sport and the World War I military experience and discussion of sport icons such as Joe Louis Walter Camp Jackie Robinson and Cal Ripken Jr allow readers to explore sport as a reflection of the changing values and norms of society Sport in America From Colonial Leisure to Celebrity Figures and Globalization Volume II provides students and scholars with perspectives regarding the role of sport at particular moments in American history and gives them an appreciation for the complex intersections of sport with society and culture The New American Sport History S. W. Pope,1997 In this collection sixteen scholars explore topics as diverse as the historical debate over black athletic superiority the selling of sport in society the eroticism of athletic activity sexual fears of women athletes and the marketing of the marathon In line with the changing nature of sport history as a field of study the essays focus less on traditional topics and more on themes of class gender race ethnicity and national identity which also define the larger parameters of social and cultural history It is the first anthology to situation sport history within the broader fields of social history and cultural studies Contributors are Melvin L Adelman William J Baker Pamela L Cooper Mark Dyreson Gerald R Gems Elliott J Gorn Allen Guttmann Stephen H Hardy Peter Levine Donald J Mrozek Michael Oriard S W Pope Benjamin G Rader Steven A Riess Nancy L Struna and David K Wiggins     The Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1895     Encyclopedia of American Short Films, 1926-1959 Graham Webb,2020-07-10 Short subject films have a long history in American cinemas These could be anywhere from 2 to 40 minutes long and were used as a filler in a picture show that would include a cartoon a newsreel possibly a serial and a short before launching into the feature film Shorts could tackle any topic of interest an unusual travelogue a comedy musical revues sports nature or popular vaudeville acts With the advent of sound on film in the mid to late 1920s makers of earlier silent short subjects began experimenting with the short films using them as a testing ground for the use of sound in feature movies After the Second World War and the rising popularity of television short subject films became far too expensive to produce and they had mostly disappeared from the screens by the late 1950s This encyclopedia offers comprehensive listings of American short subject films from the 1920s through the 1950s     Educational Review ,1903     American Monthly Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1895     The Cambridge Review ,1983 Vols 1 26 include a supplement The University pulpit vols 1 26 no 1 661 which has separate pagination but is indexed in the main vol     The Economics of Sports Michael A.
