Phillips,John V. Lombardi,Craig W. Abbey,Diane D. Craig,2012    Best Colleges ,2011    America's best colleges editors of U.S. News & World Report,2002    America's Best Value Colleges Eric Owens,Tom Meltzer,Staff of the Princeton Review,2007-04 Paying for college can be a formidable challenge but there are schools across the nation that combine academic excellence reasonable tuition and generous financial aid packages This 2008 edition profiles 150 schools that provide a quality education with low to moderate tuition rates    The Best 361 Colleges Robert Franek,Tom Meltzer,Christopher Maier,Erik Olson,2006 115 000 current college students speak out about their colleges classes professors dorms social scenes sports and more    The College Board Review ,2006    U.S. News & World Report ,2008

The Top American Research Universities John V. Lombardi,Elizabeth D. Capaldi,Craig W. Abbey,2007    Rankings and the Reshaping of Higher Education Ellen Hazelkorn,2015-03-23 University rankings have gained popularity around the world and are now a significant factor shaping reputation This second edition updates Ellen Hazelkorn's first comprehensive study of rankings from a global perspective drawing in new original research and extensive analysis It is essential reading for policymakers managers and scholars    Breaking Ranks Colin Diver,2022-04-12 Some colleges will do anything to improve their national ranking That can be bad for their students and for higher education Since U S News World Report first published a college ranking in 1983 the rankings industry has become a self appointed judge declaring winners and losers among America's colleges and universities In this revealing account Colin Diver shows how popular rankings have induced college applicants to focus solely on pedigree and prestige while tempting educators to sacrifice academic integrity for short term competitive advantage By forcing colleges into standardized best college hierarchies he argues rankings have threatened the institutional diversity intellectual rigor and social mobility that is the genius of American higher education As a former university administrator who refused to play the game Diver leads his readers on an engaging journey through the mysteries of college rankings admissions financial aid spending policies and academic practices He explains how most dominant college rankings perpetuate views of higher education as a purely consumer good susceptible to unidimensional measures of brand value and prestige Many rankings he asserts also undermine the moral authority of higher education by encouraging various forms of distorted behavior misrepresentation and outright cheating by ranked institutions The recent Varsity Blues admissions scandal for example happened in part because affluent parents wanted to get their children into elite schools by any means necessary Explaining what is most useful and important in evaluating colleges Diver offers both college applicants and educators a guide to pursuing their highest academic goals freed from the siren song of the best college illusion Ultimately he reveals how to break ranks with a rankings industry that misleads its consumers undermines academic values and perpetuates social inequality

Selling Higher Education: Marketing and Advertising America's Colleges and Universities Eric J. Anctil,2008-09-16 Confronting an era marked by dwindling support and increased competition it is incumbent on administrators and higher education leaders at colleges and universities to broadcast who they are what they do and what makes them valuable In his direct unvarnished review of marketing higher education Eric J Anctil offers a critical call to action for institutions who wish to continue and thrive in the business of higher education Topics covered include Market Driven Versus Mission Driven Persuasion and Choice Marketing and Advertising Higher Education Marketing and Advertising the Intangible Market Differentiation Recommendations for Selling Higher Education To be viable in the modern era today s colleges and universities must strike a balance among delivering sound academic programs conducting and promoting research and engaging with the community as social institutions and places of higher learning while also meeting the contemporary challenges of running large organizations with dwindling public support and greater competition from the for profit education sector Colleges and universities that are not only aware of this environment but also are savvy in the changing marketplace increase their changes of establishing distinction among their peers Strong institutional identity requires clearly recognizing one's organizational strengths effectively communicating how one is different in a crowded marketplace and building collaborative partnerships both internally and externally to promote greater awareness and recognition among key stakeholders Strategic marketing enables one to move from being simply driven by the market to being savvy about it This monograph is an invaluable guide to that process This is the second issue in the 34th volume of the Jossey Bass series ASHE Higher Education Report Each monograph in the series is the definitive analysis of a tough higher education problem based on thorough research of pertinent literature and institutional experiences Topics are identified by a national survey Noted practitioners and scholars are then commissioned to write the reports with experts providing critical reviews of each manuscript before publication
