

Tip for eating (and buying) fewer desserts and snacks:
You can have all you want, but you have to make it from scratch!

Even More Tips!

Buy used. Before you buy anything new, check and see if someone is selling it used. FB Marketplace, eBay, thrift stores and estate sales can be great places to purchase things without creating a demand to make more.

Ship less. This ties into shopping local, but CO₂ emissions from shipping increased 15% in the last 10 years. It also makes consuming extremely convenient. If you wouldn't drive 30 minutes to pick up X item, do you need it at all?

Handmade. If you've ever wanted to learn how to make your own soap, bread, yogurt, candles, etc. now's the time! Buy supplies from reputable retailers (preferable small & local!), control exactly what goes in, learn a new skill, spend a cozy afternoon doing it. Bonus points if you invite friends over and learn together!
