The Handbook of Institutional Research Richard D. Howard, Gerald W. McLaughlin, William E. Knight, 2012-06-28

Institutional research is more relevant today than ever before as growing pressures for improved student learning and increased institutional accountability motivate higher education to effectively use ever expanding data and information resources. As the most current and comprehensive volume on the topic the Handbook describes the fundamental knowledge techniques and strategies that define institutional research. The book contains an overview of the profession and its history, examines how institutional research supports executive and academic leadership and governance and discusses the varied ways data from federal state and campus sources are used by research professionals. With contributions from leading experts in the field this important resource reviews the analytic tools, techniques and methodologies used by institutional researchers in their professional practice and covers a wide range of topics such as conducting institutional research, statistical applications, comparative analyses, quality control systems, measuring student, faculty and staff opinions and management activities designed to improve organizational effectiveness.

Financial Aid for Asian Americans, 2003-2005 Gail A. Schlachter, R. David Weber, 2003 Identifies more than nine hundred sources of funding open specifically to Asian Americans including scholarships, fellowships, loans, awards, prizes and internships.

Financial Aid for Veterans, Military Personnel, and Their Dependents, 2004-2006 Gail A. Schlachter, R. David Weber, 2004 Veterans, military personnel and their dependents make up more than one third of America's population. Each year, public and private agencies set aside billions of dollars in financial aid for these groups plus their spouses, children, grandchildren and parents. If you have ties to the military, how do you get your share? The answers are in this directory. FINANCIAL AID FOR VETERANS, MILITARY PERSONNEL AND THEIR DEPENDENTS. Here in one place you'll find a complete description of all federal, state and privately funded programs (1,200+) in all that are open to veterans, military personnel and members of their families. This funding can be used at any education level from high school through postdoctorate for study, research, travel, career development, emergencies, etc. Published biennially since 1988, this directory has been hailed as authoritative by Midwest Book Review and the definitive resource by Military.com.

How to College Andrea Malkin Brenner, Lara Hope Schwartz, 2019-04-23 The first practical guide of its kind that helps students transition smoothly from high school to college. The transition from high school and home to college can be stressful. Students and parents often arrive on campus unprepared for what college is really like. Academic standards and expectations are different from high school; families aren't present to serve as scaffolding for students and first years have to do what they call "adulting." Nothing in the college admissions process prepares students for these new realities As a result first year college students report higher stress more mental health issues and lower completion rates than in the past In fact up to one third of first year college students will not return for their second year and colleges are reporting an increase in underprepared first year students How to College is here to help Professors Andrea Malkin Brenner and Lara Schwartz guide first year students and their families through the transition process during the summer after high school graduation and throughout the school year preparing students to succeed and thrive as they transition and adapt to college The book draws on the authors experience teaching writing curricula and designing programs for thousands of first year college students over decades
